THE PREFACE.

I.

Have been desired to say something more concerning Apollonius Tyanæus, hereafter mentioned, p, 41. tho' it lies upon the Deists to produce him, if they dare pitch upon him as an Instance, to which they are fairly invited: But herein only shew their Modesty; they are bashful in the Face of an Argument, but where a Jest, a Grin, or a Laugh, will carry it off, they are unmerciful, and triumph clamorously. They have brought upon the Stage no Competitor to our Blessed Saviour, equal to their Apollonius. Therefore I named him, and provoked them (but I cannot) to bring it to a Tryal. For the sake therefore of some Readers, who may not know the Story, I will here give this short Account of him.

iv The P R E F A C E.

First then, let it be observed, That what Account we have of Apollonius Tyanæus, is from Philostratus, who lived an Hundred Years after the Time in which this Apollonius is said to have flourished.

Whence had Philostratus this? He says, from the Book of one Damis, who had been a Companion of Apollonius's. How came Philostratus by this Book? He says, that an Acquaintance of Damis's brought the Empress Julia to the Knowledge of his Commentaries, which till then had not been published. (I give it you in the Words of Mr. Blount's Translation.) And that the Empress commanded Philostratus to transcribe those Commentaries, and bestow some pains on the Relations contained in them. What Pains was this Only to transcribe? No, that was small Pains, and not fit to be imposed upon so great an Orator as Philostratus, it was the Office of a Clerk. But, it seems, this Book of Damis's was so poorly wrote, as not fit to be exposed to view, at least of the Empress, who, as Philostratus tells us, was much addicted to the Study of Rhetorick. For (says he) Damis had given a plain but unelegant Description of them, i. e. of the Acts of Apollonius. Therefore the Pains that Philostratus took, he tells us, was upon the Relations of Apollonius that were in the Commentaries of Damis. And to fit them for the Ear of an Empress, who loved Rhetorick, aliàs, romancing and fine Stories. So that we are not sure we have one Word of the Commentaries of Damis.

The P R E F A C E. v

Damis. But this we are sure of, That we have them only as they were new dressed, and vamped by an Orator, to please the Fancy of a Rhetorical Lady.

But, which is more, Philostratus does not pretend, that he confined himself to the Commentaries of Damis. For he tells us, (ibid. l. i. c. 3.) That in composing these Books of his, he had gathered together the dispersed Relations of Apollonius into one Volume. And names another Author, one Mœragenes, who had wrote four Books concerning Apollonius. But he says, that there is no Credit to be given to them. Why? Because (says he) Mœragenes, in his Books, seemeth to be altogether ignorant of his (Apollonius's) Actions. It seems they were not so romantick, as the Commentaries of Damis, and so less fit for an Entertainment to the Empress. But they do not seem to be the less true for that. And Philostratus gives another Reason against them, i. e. They were not for his Purpose; which was, to compose something new and surprizing, to gratify the Empress.

Let me observe here, That this was an Age, wherein the Melesiaca, or feigned Romantick Stories, were much in Vogue: Such as Heliodorus's Ethiopicks, The Amours of Clitophon and Leucippe, &c. And it is very probable, that Philostratus living, as he tells, at Court, would endeavour not to be out of the Fashion.

And indeed, if he had been to compose a Romance, to have appeared like any thing of Truth, he could not have introduced it upon less Authority

thority, and more precarious a Foundation than this which he has given for his Hero, Apollonius.

So extremely slight, that some very learned Men have, not without Reason, doubted whether ever there was such a Man as this Apollonius.

It is true that Origen (contr. Cels.) does mention him. But so he did likewise the Recognition of St Clement, (Tom. iii. Comment. in Genes. in Philocal. c. 23.) which now are taken for granted to have been wrote only in his Name. And it is no strange thing, that some wise and learned Men may be imposed upon, in Matters of this Nature.

But neither wise nor foolish, that have Eyes in their Heads, can be imposed upon in the four Marks hereafter given, p. 5. whereby to ascertain the Truth of any Matter of Fact. And the Deists not daring to bring the Matter of Fact of Apollonius to the Test of these Rules: All that they can possibly infer from their Legends, is That perhaps they may be true. Whereas, they must acknowledge, unless they will deny the Certainty of all their Senses, That the Matters of Fact of Moses, and of Christ, are certainly, undubitably, and infallibly true.

And there is almost the same Certainty, That those of Apollonius must be false. Because, as Men cannot be imposed upon in such notorious Matters of Fact: It is next to the same Impossibility, That they should forget them; at least so soon as were these which are told of Apollonius lonius. For Example, his freeing the City of Ephesus from the Plague. His vanishing out of the Presence of Domitian, and his Court, when he was arraigned before him. And his familiar Converse with many other Kings, and Wonders done before them; and the mighty Estimation, even to Adoration, which he is thereby said to have obtained all over the World.

Now is it possible, That all this could be so totally forgot, as that no Mention at all should be made of it for a hundred Years after these things were said to be done? Inſomuch that Philoſtratus complains, in the Introduction to his Legend, (l. i. c. 1.) That whereas Pythagoras and other ancient Philoſophers, who had lived many Ages before, were ſtill remembred with great Veneration, yet that Apollonius, who, as he ſays, Came nearer to Divine Wiſdom than Pythagoras himſelf, is not yet known among Men ---- tho' he lived neither very long ago, nor yet very lately.

Was it poſſible, that the Death of ſo famous a Perſon ſhould not have been greatly noticed? And his Sepulchre honoured and viſited? Yet Philoſtratus tells there was no Certainty of the Place where he died: That ſome ſaid it was at Ephesus; ſome at Rhodes; and ſome at Crete. And that his Sepulchre could no where be found. To help this, ſome beſtowed an Epi- theoſis upon him. And would have it, That he was taken up into Heaven. But did any body ſee it? No, That is not ſo much as alledged, Nor could Philoſtratus believe it, who ſaid that he had travelled far and near to find out his Sepulchre, but could not bear of it.

And if he was so universally famous as Philostratus has represented him, could Mœragenes have wrote his Life, and be altogether ignorant of his Actions, as Philostratus has accused him? Mœragenes wrote before Philostratus; and therefore had better Reason to know. And if Philostratus had transmitted to us the Commentaries of Mœragenes, as well as what Helps he took out of those of Damis, or fathered upon him, we should, no Doubt, have had a more moderate Account of Apollonius; since Philostratus does confess, that for that only Reason he had rejected the Books of Mœragenes. And if they were in being when he wrote, he was under a Necessity of saying something against them (tho' what he has said confirms them the more) because they gave the Lye so notoriously to his new Romance of Apollonius.

*But now, to sum up all, let us suppose to the utmost, that all this said Romance were true, what would this amount to? Only that Apollonius did such things, What then? What if he were so virtuous a Person, as that God should have given him the Power to work several Miracles? This would no ways hurt the Argument that is here brought against the Deists: Because Apollonius set up no new Religion, nor did he pretend that he was sent with any Revelation from Heaven, to introduce any new sort of Worship of God. So that it is of no Consequence to the World, whether these were true or pretended Miracles: Whether Apollonius was an honest Man, or a Magician: Or whether ever there was such a Man or not. For he left no Law or Gospel behind him, to be received upon the Credit of those Miracles which he is said to have wrought. And therefore, if he did work such, it is no Prejudice to the Truth, either of the Law or the Gospel. So that this whole Parallel betwixt Apollonius and Christ, is altogether impertinent, and shews at once the Impotence as well as Malice of those who propose it.
that*

2. This brings me from Apollonius, to his new Editor amongst us, Charles Blount. For I find my self obliged to account for what I have said of him, p. 41. I have been told, (since the first Edition of this) That it has disoblged some Friends (far from my Intention) who for Relation or Acquaintance had a Regard to the Person of Mr Blount, tho' not to his Principles; and think that I have used him too coarsly, he being a Gentleman.

But when it is considered, how he has treated our Blessed Lord and Saviour, like the Soldiers who bowed the Knee to Him, and spit in his Face; Who cried, Hail, King of Jews! to mock him the more outrageously. That not only in his Comments upon this History of Apollonius, but in his Great Diana, his Oracles of Reason, and in all his Works, he set himself, with his whole Might, to oppose and ridicule the Birth, Passion, Resurrection, Ascension, and all

all that is said of our Christ and God, in the Holy Gospel, and all Revealed Religion; of which I could give Instances out of Number, but they are not fit to be heard by Christian Ears; and it would gratify the Deists but to have them named.

Again considering, that his most pernicious Books (many of which were well nigh lost) are of late, carefully collected and re-printed, (to the Scandal of a Christian Country) and dispersed, to poison the Nation; I say, all this being duly considered, I have no Apology to make, for calling this Man execrable: Nor can I retract or compound it, seeing it is come to this, that either his blasphemous Works, (who set himself at the Head of the Deists, and after whom they now copy) or else the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, must remain execrable.

Nor would I give better Quarter to the greatest King upon Earth, who should do the same: But, after the Example of our holy Apostle, I would say, I do say, let him, or an Angel from Heaven, who durst thus presume, be accursed.

If Mr Blount had meddled only with the Argument, and opposed what he could, in that Method; I would have thought him worthy of civil Treatment; as I will any other of the Deists, who shall answer the Reasons I have here set down. And if he can overthrow them, and give me better on his Side, I confess I shall then be tempted to turn Infidel with him. And to this I invite them, I provoke them. But if they will not (as there is little Appearance that they will)

will) then, let them never more value themselves as Men of Sense, at least, let none others do so, while they refuse to be determined by Reason.

But, if instead of Reason, they have Recourse, like Mr Blount, to their old Topick of Buffoonry, and shew their Parts in witty Satire, and scorn, and laugh out — Priest-Craft — for an Hour together; let them enjoy the Fruit of their Labours, and what they justly deserve to be the Admiration of Fools, and Contempt of all wise and good Men. And so I leave them.

A Short and Easy

METHOD

I.

N answer to your's of the Third Instant, I much condole with you, your unhappy Circumstances, of being placed amongst such Company, where, as you say, you continually hear the Sacred Scripture, and the Histories therein contained, particularly of Moses and of Christ, and all Revealed Religion turned into Ridicule, by
Men

2 A Short and Easy METHOD

Men who set up for Sense and Reason. And they say, That there is no greater Ground to believe in Christ, than in Mabomet; that all these Pretences to Revelation are Cheats, and ever have been among Pagans, Jews, Mahometans, and Christians; That they are all alike Impositions of Cunning and Designing Men, upon the Credulity, at first, of simple and unthinking People, till their Numbers increasing, their Delusions grew popular; came at last to be established by Laws; and then the Force of Education and Custom gives a Byass to the Judgments of After-Ages, till such Deceits come really to be believed, being received upon Trust from the Ages foregoing, without examining into the Original and Bottom of them. Which these our modern Men of Sense, (as they desire to be esteemed) say, That they only do, that they only have their Judgments freed from the slavish Authority of Precedents and Laws, in Matters of Truth, which, they say, ought only to be decided by Reason; tho' by a prudent Compliance with Popularity and Laws, they preserve themselves from Outrage, and Legal Penalties; for none of their Complexion are addicted to Sufferings, or Martyrdom.

Now, Sir, that which you desire from me, is, some short Topic of Reason, if such can be found, whereby, without running to Authorities, and the intricate Mazes of Learning, which breed long Disputes, and which these Men of Reason deny by wholesale, though they they can give no Reason for it, only suppose that Authors have been Trump'd upon us, Interpolated, and Corrupted, so that no Stress can be laid upon them, tho' it cannot be shewn wherein they are so Corrupted; which, in Reason, ought to lie upon them to prove, who alledge it; otherwise, it is not only a Precarious, but a Guilty Plea: And the more, that they refrain not to quote Books on their side, for whose Authority there are no better, or not so good Grounds. However, you say, it makes your Disputes endless, and they go away with Noise and Clamour, and a Boast, That there is nothing, at least nothing Certain, to be said on the Christian Side. Therefore you are desirous to find some One Topick of Reason, which should demonstrate the Truth of the Christian Religion, and at the same time, distinguish it from the Impostures of Mahomet, and the Old Pagan World: That our Deists may be brought to this Test, and be either oblig'd to renounce their Reason, and the common Reason of Mankind, or to submit to the clear Proof, from Reason, of the Christian Religion; which must be such a Proof, as no Imposture can pretend to, otherwise it cannot prove the Christian Religion not to be an Imposture. And, whether such a Proof, one single Proof, (to avoid Confusion) is not to be found out, you desire to know from me.

And you say, that you cannot imagine, but there must be such a Proof, because every Truth is in itself Clear, and One; and therefore that One Reason for it, if it be the true Reason, must be sufficient; and, if sufficient, it is better than many, for Multiplicity confounds, especially to weak Judgments.

Sir, you have impos'd an hard Task upon me, I wish I could perform it. For tho' every Truth is One, yet our Sight is so feeble, that we cannot (always) come to it directly, but by many Inferences, and laying of things together.

But I think, that in the Case before us, there is such a Proof as you require, and I will set it down as Short and Plain as I can.

II. First then, I suppose, that the Truth of the Doctrine of CHRIST will be sufficiently evinced, if the Matters of Fact, which are recorded of him in the Gospels, be True; for his Miracles, if True, do vouch the Truth of what he delivered.

The same is to be said as to Moses. If he brought the Children of Israel through the Red-Sea, in that miraculous Manner, which is related in Exodus, and did such other wonderful things as are there told of him, it must necessarily follow, that he was sent from GOD: These being the strongest Proofs we can desire, and which every Deist will confess he wou'd acquiesce in, if he saw them with his Eyes. Therefore the Stress of this Cause will depend upon the Proof of these Matters of Fact.

I. And the Method I will take, is, First, To lay down such Rules as to the Truth of Matters

Matters of Fact, in General, that where they All meet, such Matters of Fact cannot be false. And then, Secondly, To shew that all these Rules do meet in the Matters of Fact, of Moses, and of Christ; and that they do not meet in the Matters of Fact of Mahomet, of the Heathen Deities, or can possibly meet in any Imposture whatsoever.

2. The Rules are these, 1st. That the Matters of Fact be such, as that Mens outward Senses, their Eyes and Ears, may be Judges of it, 2. That it be done Publickly, in the Face of the World. 3. That not only publick Monuments be kept up in memory of it, but some outward Actions to be perform'd. 4. That such Monuments and such Actions or Observances be Instituted, and do commence from the Time that the Matter of Fact was done.

3. The Two first Rules make it impossible for any such Matter of Fact to be impos'd upon Men, at that Time when such Matter of Fact was said to be done, because every Man's Eyes and Senses would contradict it. For Example, Suppose any Man shou'd pretend, that Yesterday he divided the Thames, in Presence of all the People of London, and carried the whole City, Men, Women, and Children, over to Southwark, on dry Land, the Waters standing like Walls on both Sides; I say, it is morally impossible that he could persuade the People of London, that this was true, when every Man, Woman, and Child, could contradict him, and say, That this was a notorious Falshood, for that they had not seen the Thames so divided, or had gone over on dry Land. Therefore I take it for Granted, (and I suppose, with the Allowance of all the Deists in the World) that no such Imposition could be put upon Men, at the Time when such publick Matter of Fact was said to be done.

6 A Short and Easy METHOD

4. Therefore it only remains that such Matter of Fact might be invented some time after, when the Men of that Generation, wherein the Thing was said to be done, are all past and gone; and the Credulity of after Ages might be impos'd upon, to believe that Things were done in former Ages, which were not.

And for this, the Two last Rules secure us as much as the Two first Rules, in the former Case; for whenever such Matter of Fact came to be invented, if not only Monuments were said to remain of it, but likewise that publick Actions and Observances were constantly used ever since the Matter of Fact was said to be done, the Deceit must be detected, by no such Monuments appearing, and by the Experience of every Man, Woman, and Child, who must know that no such Actions or Observances were ever us'd by them. For Example, Suppose I should now invent a Story of such a Thing, done a Thousand Years ago, I might, perhaps, get some to believe it; but if I say, that not only such a Thing was done, but that from that Day to this, every Man, at the Age of Twelve Years, had a Joint of his little Finger ger cut off; and that every Man in the Nation did want a Joint of such a Finger; and that this Institution was said to be Part of the Matter of Fact done so many Years ago, and vouch'd as a Proof and Confirmation of it, and as having descended, without Interruption, and been constantly practis'd, in memory of such Matter of Fact all along, from the Time that such Matter of Fact was done: I say, it is impossible I should be believ'd in such a Case, because every one could contradict me, as to the Mark of cutting off a Joint of the Finger; and that being Part of my original Matter of Fact, must demonstrate the whole to be false.

III. Let us now come to the Second Point, to shew, that the Matters of Fact of Moses, and of Christ, have all these Rules, or Marks, before mention'd; and that neither the Matters of Fact of Mahomet, or what is reported of the Heathen Deities, have the like; and that no Imposture can have them all.

1. As to Moses, I suppose it will be allow'd me, That he could not have persuaded 600000 Men, that he had brought them out of Egypt, through the Red-Sea; fed them 40 Years, without Bread, by miraculous Manna, and the other Matters of Fact recorded in his Books, if they had not been true. Because every Man's Senses that were then alive, must have contradicted it. And therefore he must have impos'd upon all their Senses, if he could have made them believe it, when it was false and no such Things done. So that here are the First and Second of the above-mentioned Four Marks.

For the same Reason, it was equally impossible for him to have made them receive his Five Books, as Truth, and not to have rejected them, as a manifest Imposture; which told of all these Things as done before their Eyes, if they had not been so done. See how positively he speaks to them, Deut. xi. 2. to ver. 8. And know you this Day, for I speak not with your Children, which have not known, and which have not seen the Chastisement of the Lord your God, his Greatness, his mighty Hand, and his stretched out Arm, and his Miracles, and his Acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt, unto Pharaoh, the King of Egypt, and unto all his Land, and what he did unto the Army of Egypt, unto their Horses, and to their Chariots; how he made the Water of the Red-Sea to overflow them as they pursued after you; and how the Lord hath destroyed them unto this Day: And what he did unto you in the Wilderness, until ye came into this Place; and what he did unto Dathan, and Abiram, the Sons of Eliab, the Son of Reuben, how the Earth opened her Mouth, and swallowed them up, and their Households, and their Tents, and all the Substance that was in their Possession, in the midst of all Israel. But your Eyes have seen all the great Acts of the Lord, which he did, &c.

From hence we must suppose it impossible that these Books of Moses, (if an Imposture) could have been invented and put upon the People.

People who were then alive, when all these things were said to be done.

The utmost therefore that even a Suppose can stretch to, is, That these Books were wrote in some Age after Moses, and put out in his Name.

And to this, I say, That if it was so, it was impossible that those Books should have been receiv'd, as the Books of Moses, in that Age wherein they may have been suppos'd to have been first invented. Why? Because they speak of themselves as deliver'd by Moses, and kept in the Ark from his time. And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the Words of this Law in a Book, until they were finished; that Moses commanded the Levites who bare the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, saying, Take this Book of the Law, and put it in the Side of the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a Witness against thee, Deut. xxxi. 24, 25, 26. And there was a Copy of this Book to be left likewise with the King. And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the Throne of his Kingdom, that he shall write him a Copy of this Law in a Book, out of that which is before the Priests the Levites: And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the Days of his Life: That he may learn to fear the Lord his God, to keep all the Words of this Law, and these Statutes, to do them, Deut. xvii. 18, 19.

Here you see that this Book of the Law, speaks of itself, not only as an History, or Relation, of what things were then done: But as the standing and Municipal Law and Statutes of the Nation of the Jews, binding the King as well as the People.

Now, in whatever Age after Moses, you will suppose this Book to have been Forged, it was impossible it cou'd be receiv'd as Truth; because it was not then to be found, either in the Ark, or with the King, or any where else: For when first Invented, every body must know, that they had never heard of it before.

And therefore they cou'd less believe it to be the Book of their Statutes, and the standing Law of the Land, which they had all along received, and by which they had been Governed.

Cou'd any Man, now at this Day, invent a Book of Statutes, or Acts of Parliament for England, and make it pass upon the Nation as the only Book of Statutes that ever they had known? As impossible was it for the Books of Moses, (if they were invented in any Age after Moses) to have been receiv'd for what they declare themselves to be, viz. The Statutes and Municipal Law of the Nation of the Jews: And to have persuaded the Jews, that they had Own'd and Acknowledg'd these Books, all along from the Days of Moses, to that Day in which they were first invented, that is, that they had Own'd them before they had ever so much as Heard of them. Nay, more, the whole Nation must, in an Instant, forget their former Laws and Government, if they cou'd receive these Books, as being their Former Laws. And they cou'd not otherwise receive them, because they vouch'd themselves so to be. Let me ask the Deists but this One short Question, was there ever a Book of Sham-Laws, which were not the Laws of the Nation, Palm'd upon any People, since the World began? If not, With what Face can they say this of the Book of Laws of the Jews? Why will they say that of them, which they confess impossible in any Nation, or among any People?

But they must be yet more Unreasonable. For the Books of Moses have a further Demonstration of their Truth, than even other Law-Books have: For they not only contain the Laws, but give an Historical Account of their Institution, and the Practice of them from that Time: As of the Passover in Memory of the Death of the First-Born in Egypt: And that the same Num. viii.
17, 18. Day, all the First-Born of Israel, both of Man and Beast, were, by a perpetual Law, dedicated to God: And the Levites taken for all the First-Born of the Children of Israel. That Aaron's Rod which budded, was kept in the Ark, in Memory of the Rebellion, and wonderful Destruction of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram; and for the Confirmation of the Priesthood to the Tribe of Levi. As likewise the Pot of Manna, in Memory of their having been fed with it 40 Years in the Wilderness. That the Brazen-Serpent was kept (which remained to the Days of Hezekiah, 2 Kings xviii. 4.) in Memory of that wonderful Deliverance rance by only Looking upon it, from the Biting of the Fiery-Serpents, Num. xxi. 9. The Feast of Pentecost, in Memory of the dreadful Appearance of God upon Mount Hore, &c.

And besides these Remembrances of particular Actions and Occurrences, there were other solemn Institutions in Memory of their Deliverance out of Egypt, in the General, which included all the Particulars. As of the Sabbath, Deut. v. 15. Their daily Sacrifices, and Yearly Expiation; their New-Moons, and several Feasts and Fasts. So that there were Yearly, Monthly, Weekly, Daily Remembrances, and Recognitions of these things.

And, not only so, but the Books of the same Moses tell us, that a particular Tribe (of Levi) was Appointed and Consecrated by God, as his Priests; by whose Hands and none other, the Sacrifices of the People were to be offer'd, and these solemn Institutions to be celebrated. That it was Death for any other to approach the Altar. That their High-Priest wore a Glorious Mitre, and Magnificent Robes of God's own Contrivance, with the miraculous Urim and Thummim in his Breast-plate, whence the divine Responses were given.

That at his Word, the King, and all the People were to go out, and to come in. That these Levites were likewise the Chief Judges, even in all Civil Causes, and that it was Death to resist their Sentence. Now whenever it can be suppos'd that these Books of Moses

Moses were forged, in some Ages after Moses, it is impossible they cou'd have been received as True, unless the Forgers could have made the whole Nation believe, that they had received these Books from their Fathers, had been instructed in them when they were Children, and had taught them to their Children; moreover, that they had all been circumcised, and did circumcise their Children, in pursuance to what was commanded in these Books; that they had observed the yearly Passover, the weekly Sabbath, the New Moons, and all these several Feasts, Fasts, and Ceremonies, commanded in these Books: That they had never eaten any Swines Flesh, or other Meats prohibited in these Books: That they had a magnificent Tabernacle, with a visible Priesthood to Administer in it, which was confined to the Tribe of Levi; over whom, was placed a glorious High-Priest, cloth'd with great and mighty Prerogatives; whose Death only cou'd deliver those that were fled to the Cities of Refuge. And that these Priests were their ordinary Judges, even in Civil Matters: I say, was it possible to have persuaded a whole Nation of Men, that they had Known and Practised all these Things, if they had not done it? Or, Secondly, To have received a Book for Truth, which said they had practised them, and appeal'd to that Practice? So that here are the Third and Fourth of the Marks above-mentioned.

But

14 A Short and Easy METHOD

But now let us descend to the utmost Degree of Supposition, viz. That these Things were Practised, before these Books of Moses were Forged; and that these Books did only impose upon the Nation, in making them believe, That they had kept these Observances in Memory of such and such Things, as were inserted in those Books.

Well then, let us proceed upon this Supposition, (however groundless) and now, will not the same Impossibilities occur, as in the former Case? For, First, This must suppose that the Jews kept all these Observances in Memory of Nothing, or without knowing any thing of their Original, or the Reason why they kept them. Whereas these very Observances, did express the Ground and Reason of their being kept, as the Passover, in Memory of God's Passing-over the Children of the Israelites, in that Night wherein he slew all the First-born of Egypt, and so of the rest.

But, Secondly, Let us suppose, contrary both to Reason, and Matter of Fact, That the Jews did not know any Reason at all, why they kept these Observances; yet was it possible to put it upon them, That they had kept these Observances in Memory of what they had never heard of before that Day, whensoever you will suppose that these Books of Moses were first Forged? For Example, suppose I shou'd now forge some Romantick Story, of strange Things done 1000 Years ago, and in Confirmation

Confirmation of this, should endeavour to persuade the Christian World, That they had all along, from that Day to this, kept the First-Day of the Week, in Memory of such an Hero, an Appollonius, a Barcosbas, or a Mahomet; and had all been Baptized in his Name; and Swore by his Name, and upon that very Book (which I had then forged, and which they never saw before) in their publick Judicatures; that this Book was their Gospel and Law, which they had ever since that Time, these 1000 Years past, universally receiv'd and own'd, and none other. I would ask any Deist, whether he thinks it possible, that such a Cheat cou'd pass, or such a Legend be receiv'd as the Gospel of Christians; and that they could be made believe, that they never had had any other Gospel? The same Reason is as to the Books of Moses; and must be, as to every Matter of Fact, which has all the Four Marks before-mentioned; and these Marks secure any such Matter of Fact as much from being invented and impos'd in any after Ages, as at the Time when such Matters of Fact were said to be done.

Let me give one very familiar Example more in this Case. There is the Stonbenge on Salisbury-Plain, every body knows it; and yet none knows the Reason why those Great Stones were set there, or by whom, or in memory of what.

Now suppose I shou'd write a Book To-morrow, and tell there, That these Stones were set

set up by Hercules, Polyphemus, or Garagantua, in memory of such and such of their Actions, And, for a further Confirmation of this, shou'd say, in this Book, That it was wrote at the Time when such Actions were done, and by the very Actors themselves, or Eye-Witnesses. And that this Book had been received as Truth, and quoted by Authors of the greatest Reputation in all Ages since. Moreover, that this Book was well known in England, and enjoyn'd by Act of Parliament, to be taught our Children, and that we did teach it our Children, and had been taught it ourselves when we were Children. I ask any Deist, Whether he thinks this could pass upon England! And whether, If I, or any other, should insist upon it, we should not, instead of being believ'd, be sent to Bedlam?

Now let us compare this with the Stonehenge, as I may call it, or Twelve great Stones set up at Gilgal, which is told in the ivth Chapter of Joshua. There it is said, ver. 6. that the Reason why they were set up, was, that when their Children, in after Ages, should ask the Meaning of it, should be told them.

And the Thing, in Memory of which they were set up, was such as cou'd not possibly be impos'd upon that Notion, at that Time, when it was said to be done, it was as wonderful and miraculous as their Passage thro' the Red-Sea.

And withal, free from a very poor Objection, which the Deists have advanc'd against that Miracle

Miracle of the Red-Sea: Thinking to save it by a Spring-Tide, with the Concurrence of a strong Wind, happening at the same Time; which left the Sand so dry, as that the Israelites being all Foot, might pass thro' the Owsey Places and Holes, which it must be supposed the Sea left behind it: But that the Egyptians, being all Horse and Chariots, stuck in those Holes, and were entangled, so as that they cou'd not march so fast as the Israelites: And that this was all the Meaning of its being said, That God took off their (the Egyptians) Chariot-Wheels, that they drove them heavily. So that they wou'd make nothing extraordinary, at least, not miraculous, in all this Action.

This is advanc'd in Le Clerc's Dissertations upon Genesis, lately printed in Holland, and that Part with others of the like Tendency, endeavouring to resolve other Miracles, as that of Sodom and Gomorrhah, &c. into mere Natural Causes, are put into English by the well known T. BROWN, for the Edification of the Deists in England.

But these Gentlemen have forgot, that the Israelites had great Herds of many Thousand Cattle with them; which wou'd be apter to stray, and fall into those Holes, and Owsey Places in the Sand, than Horses with Riders, who might direct them.

But such precarious, and silly Supposes, are not worth the Answering. If there had been no more in this Passage thro' the Red-Sea than than that of a Spring-Tide, &c. It had been impossible for Moses to have made the Israelites believe that Relation given of it in Exodus, with so many Particulars, which themselves saw, to be true.

And all those Scriptures which magnify this Action, and appeal to it as a full Demonstration of the miraculous Power of God, must be reputed as Romance or Legend.

I say this, for the Sake of some Christians, who think it no Prejudice to the Truth of the Holy Bible, but rather an Advantage, as rendering it more easy to be believ'd, if they can solve whatever seems Miraculous in it, by the Power of second Causes: And so to make all, as they speak, Natural, and Easy. Wherein, if they cou'd prevail, the natural and easy Result wou'd be, not to believe one Word in all those Sacred Oracles. For if things be not, as they are told in any Relation, that Relation must be false. And if false in Part, we cannot Trust to it, either in Whole, or in Part,

Here are to be excepted. Mis-Translations, and Errors, either in Copy, or in Press. But where there is no Room for supposing of these, as where all Copies do agree; there we must either Receive all, or Reject all. I mean in any Book that pretends to be written from the Mouth of God. For in other common Histories, we may believe Part, and reject Part, as we see Cause.

But to return. The Passage of the Israelites over Jordan, in Memoy of which those Stones

Stones at Gilgal were set up, is free from all those little Carplings before mentioned, that are made as to the Passage thro' the Red-Sea. For Notice was given to the Israelites the Day before, of this great Miracle to be done, Josh. iii. 5. It was done at Noon-day, before the whole Nation. And when the Waters of Jordan were divided, it was not at any Low Ebb, but at the Time when that River over-flowed all his Banks, ver. 15. And it was done, not by Winds, or in length of Time, which Winds must take to do it: But all on the sudden, as soon as the Feet of the Priests that bare the Ark were dipped in the Brim of the Water. Then the Waters which came down from above, stood and rose up upon an Heap, very far from the City Adam, that is beside Zaretan; And those that came down toward the Sea of the Plain, even the Salt-Sea, failed, and were cut off: And the People passed over, right against Jericho. The Priest stood in the midst of Jordan, 'till all the Armies of Israel had passed over. And it came to pass, when the Priests that bare the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, were come up, out of the Midst of Jordan, and the Soles of the Priests Feet were lift up upon the Dry-land, that the Waters of Jordan returned unto their Place, and flowed over all his Banks as they did before. And the People came up out of Jordan, on the Tenth Day of the first Month, and encamped in Gilgal on the East Border of Jericho. And those Twelve Stones which

they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal. And he spake unto the Children of Israel, saying, When your Children shall ask their Fathers in Time to come, saying, What mean these Stones? Then shall ye let your Children know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry Land. For the Lord your God dried up the Waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over; as the Lord your God did to the Red-Sea, which He dried up, from before us, until we were gone over. That all the People of the Earth might know the Hand of the Lord, that it is Mighty: That ye might fear the Lord your God for ever. Chap. iv. from ver. 18.

If the Passage over the Red-Sea, had been only taking Advantage of a Spring-Tide, or the like; How would this teach all the People of the Earth, that the Hand of the Lord was Mighty! How would a Thing, no more remarkable, have been taken Notice of thro' all the World! How would it have taught Israel to fear the Lord, when they must know, that notwithstanding, of all these big Words, there was so Little in it! How could they have believ'd, or receiv'd a Book, as Truth, which they knew, told the Matter so far otherwise, from what it was!

But, as I said, this Passage over Jordan, which is here compar'd to that of the Red-Sea, is free from all those Cavils that are made, as to that of the Red-Sea, and is a further

Attestation

Attestation to it, being said to be done in the same Manner as was that of the Red-Sea.

Now, to form our Argument, let Us suppose, that there never was any such Thing as that Passage over Jordan. That these Stones at Gilgal were set up, upon some other Occasion, in some After-Age. And then, that some designing Man invented this Book of Joshua, and said, that it was wrote by Joshua at that Time. And gave this Stonage at Gilgal, for a Testimony of the Truth of it. Would not every Body say to him, We know the Stonage at Gilgal, but we never heard before of this Reason for it: Nor of this Book of Joshua: Where has it been all this while? And Where, and How came you, after so many Ages, to find it? Besides, this Book tells Us, that this Passage over Jordan was ordain'd to be taught our Children, from Age to Age: And therefore, that they were always to be Instructed in the Meaning of that Stonage at Gilgal, as a Memorial of it. But we were never taught it, when we were Children; nor did ever teach our Children any such Thing. And it is not likely, That could have been forgotten, while so remarkable a Stonage did continue, which was set up for that, and no other End.

And if, for the Reasons before given, no such Imposition, could be put upon Us, as to the Stonage in Salisbury-Plain; How much less could it be as to the Stonage at Gilgal?

22 A Short and Easy METHOD

And if where we know not the Reason of a bare naked Monument, such a Sham-Reason cannot be imposed; How much more is it impossible to impose upon Us, in Actions and Observances, which we celebrate in Memory of particular Passages? How impossible to make Us forget those Passages which we daily Commemorate; and persuade Us, that we had always kept such Institutions in Memory of what we never heard of before; that is, that We knew it, before we knew it!

And if we find it thus impossible for an Imposition to be put upon Us, even in some Things, which have not all the Four-Marks before-mentioned: How much more impossible is it, that any Deceit should be in that Thing, where all the Four-Marks do meet!

This has been shewed in the First Place, as to the Matters of Fact to Moses.

2. Therefore, I come now (Secondly) to shew, that, as in the Matters of Fact of Moses, so likewise, all these Four Marks do meet in the Matters of Fact, which are recorded, in the Gospel, of Our Blessed Saviour. And my Work herein, will be the shorter, because all that is said before, of Moses and his Books, is every Way applicable to Christ and His Gospel. His Works, and Miracles, are there said to be done publickly, in the Face of the World, as He argued to his Accusers, I spake openly to the World, and in Secret have I said Nothing, John xviii. 20. It is told, Acts ii. 41. that Three Thousand at one Time; and, Acts iv.

iv. 4. that above Five Thousand at another Time, were converted, upon Conviction of what themselves had seen, what had been done publickly before their Eyes, wherein it was impossible to have imposed upon them. Therefore here were the two First of the Rules before-mentioned.

Then for the Two second: Baptism, and the Lord's Supper, were instituted as perpetual Memorials of these Things; and they were not instituted in After-Ages, but at the very Time, when these Things were said to be done; and have been observed without Interruption, in all Ages through the whole Christian World, down all the Way, from that Time to this. And Christ Himself did ordain Apostles, and other Ministers, of His Gospel to Preach, and Administer, these Sacraments; and to Govern His Church: And that always, even unto the End of the World. Accordingly they have continued by regular Succession to this Day: And, no Doubt, ever shall, while the Earth shall last. So that the Christian Clergy are as notorious a Matter of Fact, as the Tribe of Levi among the Jews. And the Gospel is as much a Law to the Christians, as the Books of Moses to the Jews: And it being Part of the Matters of Fact related in the Gospel, that such an Order of Men, were appointed by Christ, and to continue to the End of the World; consequently, if the Gospel was a Fiction, and invented (as it must be) on some Ages after Christ; then, at that

24 A Short and Easy METHOD

Time, when it was first invented, there could be no such Order of Clergy, as derived themselves from the Institution of Christ; which must give the Lye to the Gospel, and demonstrate the whole to be False. And the Matters of Fact of Christ being pressed to be True, no otherwise than as there was, at that Time (whenever the Deists will suppose the Gospel to be Forged) not only publick Sacraments of Christ's Institution, but an Order of Clergy, likewise of his Appointment, to Administer them: And it being impossible there could be any such Things before they were Invented, it is as impossible that they should be Received when Invented. And therefore, by what was said above, it was as impossible to have imposed upon Mankind in this Matter, by inventing of it in After-Ages, as at the Time when those Things were said to be done.

3. The Matters of Fact of Mahomet, or what is Fabled of the Deities, do all want some of the aforesaid four Rules, whereby the Certainty of Matters of Fact is demonstrated. First, for Mahomet, he pretended to no Miracles, as he tells us in his Alcoran, c. 6, &c. and those which are commonly told of him pass among the Mahometans themselves, but as Legendary Fables; and as such, are rejected by the Wise and Learned among them; as the Legends of their Saints are in the Church of Rome. See Dr Prideaux's Life of Mahomet, Page 34.

But, in the next Place, those which are told of him, do all want the Two first Rules before-before-mention'd. For his pretended Converse with the Moon; his Mersa, or Night-Journey from Mecca to Jerusalem, and thence to Heaven, &c. were not performed before any Body. We have only his own Word for them. And they are as groundless as the Delusions of Fox, or Muggleton, among ourselves. The same is to be said (in the second Place) of the Fables of the Heathen Gods, of Mercury's stealing Sheep, Jupiter's turning himself into a Bull, and the like; besides the Folly, and Unworthiness, of such senseless pretended Miracles. And moreover, the Wise among the Heathens did reckon no otherwise of these, but as Fables, which had a Mythology, or Mystical Meaning in them, of which several of them have given us the Rationale, or Explication. And it is plain enough that Ovid meant no other by all his Metamorphoses.

It is true, the Heathen Deities had their Priests: They had likewise Feasts, Games, and other publick Institutions, in Memory of them. But all these want the Fourth Mark, viz. That such Priesthood and Institutions should Commence from the Time that such Things as they Commemorate, were said to be done; otherwise they cannot secure After-Ages from the Imposture, by detecting it, at the Time when first Invented, as hath been argued before. But the Bacchanalia, and other Heathen Feasts, were instituted many Ages after what was reported of these Gods, was said to be done, and therefore can be no Proof of them. And the Priests of Bacchus, Apollo, &c. were not Ordained by these supposed Gods: But were appointed by others, in After-Ages, only in Honour to them. And therefore these Orders of Priests are no Evidence to the Truth of the Matters of Fact, which are reported of their Gods.

IV. Now to apply what has been said, You may challenge all the Deists in the World to shew any Action that is Fabulous, which has all the four Rules, or Marks, before-mentioned. No, it is impossible. And (to resume a little what is spoke to before) the Histories of Exodus, and the Gospel, could never have been received, if they had not been true; because the Institution of the Priesthood of Levi and of Christ; of the Sabbath, the Pas-sover, of Circumcision, of Baptism, and the Lord's-Supper, &c. are there related, as descending all the Way down from those Times, without Interruption. And it is full as impossible to persuade Men, that they had been Circumcised, Baptized, had Circumcised, or Baptized their Children, celebrated Passovers, Sabbaths, Sacraments, &c. under the Government and Administration of a certain Order of Priests, if they had done none of these Things, as to make them believe that they had gone through Seas upon Dry-Land, seen the Dead raised, &c. And without believing of these, it was impossible that either the Law, or the Gospel, could have been received.

And

And the Truth of the Matters of Fact of Exodus and the Gospel, being no otherwise pressed upon Men, than as they have practised such publick Institutions; it is appealing to the Senses of Mankind for the Truth of them: And makes it impossible for any to have invented such Stories in After-Ages, without a palpable Detection of the Cheat, when first invented; as impossible as to have imposed upon the Senses of Mankind, at the Time when such publick Matters of Fact were said to be done.

V. I do not say, that every thing which wants these four Marks is False: But, that nothing can be False which has them All.

No manner of Doubt, that there was such a Man as Julius Cæsar, that he fought at Pharsalia, was killed in the Senate-House: And many other Matters of Fact of Antient times, tho' we keep no publick Observances in Memory of them

But this shews that the Matters of Fact of Moses, and of Christ, have come down to Us better guarded, than any other Matters of Fact, how true soever.

And yet our Deists who would laugh any Man out of the World, as an irrational Brute, that should offer to deny Cæsar or Alexander, Homer or Virgil, their publick Works and Actions; do, at the same time, value themselves as the only Men of Wit and Sense, of Free, Generous, and Unbyassed Judgments for

ridiculing the Histories of Moses and Christ, that are infinitely better attested, and guarded with infallible Marks, which the others want.

VI. Besides that, the Importance of the Subject, would oblige all Men to enquire more narrowly into the one, than the other : For what Consequence is it to me, or to the World, whether there was such a Man as Cæsar, whether he beat, or was beaten at Pharsalia, whether Homer or Virgil, wrote such Books, and whether what is related in the Iliads or Æneids, be True, or False ? It is not Two-Pence up or down to any Man in the World. And therefore, it is worth no Man's while to enquire into it, either to Oppose, or Justify the Truth, of these Relations.

But our very Souls and Bodies, both this Life and Eternity, are concerned in the Truth of what is related in the Holy Scriptures; and therefore, Men would be more inquisitive to search into the Truth of these, than of any other Matters of Fact; examine, and sift them narrowly; and find out the Deceit, if any such could be found : For it concerned them Nearly: and was of the last Importance to them.

How unreasonable then is it to reject these Matters of Fact, so sifted, so examined, and so attested, as no other Matters of Fact in the World ever were; and yet, to think it the most highly Unreasonable, even to Madness, to deny other Matters of Fact, which have not the thousandth Part of their Evidence, and are of no Consequence at all to Us, whether True or False.

VII. There are several other Topicks, from whence the Truth of the Christian Religion is evinced, to all who will Judge by Reason, and give themselves leave to Consider. As the Improbability that Ten or Twelve poor illiterate Fishermen, should form a Design of converting the whole World to believe the Delusions; and the Impossibility of their effecting it, without Force of Arms, Learning, Oratory, or any one visible Thing that could recommend them! And to impose a Doctrine, quite opposite to the Lusts and Pleasures of Men, and all worldly Advantages, or Enjoyments! And this, in an Age of so great Learning, and Sagacity, as that, wherein the Gospel was first Preached! That these Apostles should not only undergo all the Scorn and Contempt, but the severest Persecutions and most cruel Deaths that could be inflicted, in Attestation to what themselves knew to be a meer Deceit, and Forgery, of their own Contriving! Some have suffered for Errors which they thought to be Truth: But never any for what themselves knew to be Lies. And the Apostles must know what they taught to be Lies, if it was so, because they spoke of those things which they said, they had both seen and heard, had looked upon, and handled with their Hands, &c.

Acts iv. 20.
1 John i. 1.

Neither

30 A Short and Easy METHOD

Neither can it be said, that they, perhaps, might have proposed some temporal Advantages to themselves, but missed of them, and met with Sufferings, instead of them: For if it had been so, it is more than probable, that when they saw their Disappointment, they would have discovered their Conspiracy; especially when they might not have only saved their Lives, but got great Rewards for doing of it. That not one of them should ever have been brought to do this.

But this is not all. For they tell us, that their Master bid them expect nothing but Sufferings in this World. This is the Tenor of all that Gospel which they taught. And they told the same to all whom they Converted. So that here was no Disappointment.

For all that were Converted by them, were Converted upon the certain Expectation of Sufferings, and bidden prepare for it. Christ commanded his Disciples to take up their Cross daily, and follow Him; and told them, that in the World they should have Tribulation: That whoever did not forsake Father, Mother, Wife, Children, Lands, and their very Lives, could not be his Disciples: That he, who sought to save his Life in this World, should lose it in the next.

Now that this despised Doctrine of the Cross should prevail so Universally against the Allurements of Flesh and Blood, and all the Blandishments of this World; against the Rage and Persecution of all the Kings and Powers

Powers of the Earth, must shew it's Original to be Divine; and its Protector Almighty. What is it else, could conquer without Arms, persuade without Rhetorick; overcome Enemies; disarm Tyrants; and subdue Empires without Opposition.

VIII. We may add to all this, the Testimonies of the most bitter Enemies and Persecutors of Christianity, both Jews and Gentiles, to the Truth of the Matter of Faët of Christ, such as Josephus, and Tacitus; of which the First flourished about Forty Years after the Death of Christ, and the Other, about Seventy Years after: So that they were capable of examining into the Truth, and wanted not Prejudice and Malice sufficient to have inclined them to deny the Matter of Faët itself, of Christ: But their Confessing to it, as likewise Lucian, Celsus, Porphyry, and Julian, the Apostate; the Mahometans since, and all other Enemies of Christianity, that have arisen in the World, is an undeniable Attestation to the Truth of the Matter of Faët.

IX. But there is another Argument more strong and convincing, than even this Matter of Faët. More than the Certainty of what I see with my Eyes. And which the Apostle Peter called a more sure Word, that is, Proof that what he saw and heard upon the Holy Mount, when our Blessed Saviour was Transfigured before him, and two other of the Apostles:

32 A Short and Easy METHOD

Apostles: For having repeated that Passage as a Proof of that whereof they were Eye Witnesses, and heard the Voice from Heaven giving Attestation to our Lord Christ, 2 Pet. i. 16, 17, 18. He says, ver. 19. We have also a more sure Word of Prophecy, for the Proof of this Jesus being the Messiah, that is, the Prophecies which had gone before of Him, from the Beginning of the World; and All exactly fulfilled in Him.

Men may dispute an Imposition or Delusion, upon our outward Senses. But how can that be False, which has been so long, even from the Beginning of the World, and so Often by all the Prophets, in several Ages, foretold; how can this be an Imposition, or a Forgery?

This is particularly insisted on, in the Method with the Jews. And even the Deists must confess, that the Book We call the Old Testament, was in being, in the Hands of the Jews, long before our Saviour came into the World. And if they will be at the Pains to compare the Prophecies that are there of the Messiah, with the Fulfilling of them, as to Time, Place, and all other Circumstances, in the Person, Birth, Life, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension, of our Blessed Saviour, will find this Proof, what our Apostle here calls it, a Light shining in a dark Place, until the Day-dawn, and the Day-star arise in your Hearts. Which God grant. Here is no Possibility of Deceit or Imposture.

Old Prophecies, (and all so agreeing) could not have been contrived to countenance a new Cheat: And nothing could be a Cheat, that could fulfil all these.

For this, therefore, I refer the Deists to the Method with the Jews.

I desire them likewise, to look there, Sect. XI. and consider the Prophecies given so long ago, of which, they see the Fulfilling at this Day, with their own Eyes, of the State of the Jews, for many Ages past, and at present; without a King, or Priest, or Temple, or Sacrifice, scattered to the four Winds, Sifted as with a Sieve, among all Nations; yet preserved, and always so to be, a distinct People, from all others, of the whole Earth. Whereas, those Mighty Monarchies which Oppressed the Jews, and which Commanded the World, in their Turns; and had the greatest Human Prospect of Perpetuity, were to be extinguished, as they have been, even that their Names should be blotted out from under Heaven.

As likewise, That as Remarkable of our Blessed Saviour, concerning the Preservation and Progress of the Christian Church, when in her Swaddling Cloaths, consisting only of a few poor Fishermen. Not by the Sword, as that of Mahomet, but under all the Persecution of Men and Hell; which yet should not prevail against Her.

But though I offer these, as not to be slighted by the Deists, to which they can shew shew nothing equal in all prophane History; and in which it is impossible any Cheat can lie; yet I put them not upon the same Foot as the Prophecies before-mentioned, of the Marks and Coming of the Messiah, which have been since the World began.

34 A Short and Easy METHOD

And that General Expectation of the whole Earth, at the Time of His Coming, insisted upon in the Method with the Jews, Sect. V. is Greatly to be Noticed.

But, I say, the foregoing Prophecies of our Saviour, are so strong a Proof, as even Miracles would not be sufficient to break their Authority.

I mean, if it were possible that a True Miracle could be wrought, in Contradiction to them. For that would be for God to contradict Himself.

But no Sign, or Wonder, that could possibly be solved, should shake this Evidence.

It is this that keeps the Jews in their Obstinacy. Though they cannot deny the Matters of Fact done by our Blessed Saviour, to be truly Miracles, if so done as said. Nor can they deny that they were so done, because they have all the Four Marks before mentioned. Yet they cannot yield! Why? Because they think that the Gospel is in Contradiction to the Law. Which, if it were, the Consequence would be unavoidable, that Both could not be True. To solve this, is the Business of the Method with the Jews. But the Contradiction which they suppose, is in their Comments that they put upon the Law; especially they expect a Literal Fulfilling filling of those Promises of the Restoration of Jerusalem, and outward Glories of the Church, of which there is such frequent mention in the Books of Moses, the Psalms, and all the Prophets. And many Christians do expect the same; and take those Texts as Literally as the Jews do. We do Believe, and Pray, for the Conversion of the Jews. For this End they have been so miraculously Preserved, according to the Prophecies so long before of it. And when that Time shall come, as they are the most Honourable and Ancient of all the Nations on the Earth, so will their Church Return to be the Mother Christian Church, as she was at First; And Rome must Surrender to Jerusalem. Then all Nations will Flow thither; and even Ezekiel's Temple may be Literally Built There, in the Metropolis of the whole Earth; which Jerusalem must be, when the Fulness of the Gentiles, shall meet with the Conversion of the Jews. For no Nation will then contend with the Jews, no Church with Jerusalem for Supremacy. All Nations will be ambitious to draw their Original from the Jews, whose are the Fathers, and from whom, as concerning the Flesh, Christ came.

Then will be fulfilled that outward Grandeur and Restoration of the Jews and of Jerusalem, which they expect, pursuant to the Prophecies.

They pretend not that this is limited to any particular Time of the Reign of the Messiah.

36 A Short and Easy METHOD

slab. They are sure it will not be at the beginning; for they expect to go through great Conflicts and Tryals with their Messiah, (as the Christian Church has done) before his Final Conquest, and that they come to Reign with him. So that this is no Obstruction to their Embracing of Christianity. They see the same things fulfilled in us, which they expect themselves; and we expect the same things they do.

I tell this to the Deists, lest they may think that the Jews have some stronger Arguments than they know of; That they are not persuaded by the Miracles of our Blessed Saviour, and by the fulfilling of all the Prophecies in him, that were made concerning the Messiah.

As I said before, I would not plead even Miracles against these.

And if this is sufficient to persuade a Jew, it is much more so to a Deist, who labours not under these Objections.

Besides, I would not seem to clash with that (in a sound Sense) reasonable Caution, used by Christian Writers, not to put the Issue of the Truth wholly upon Miracles, without this addition, when not done in Contradiction to the Revelations already given in the Holy Scriptures.

And they do it upon this Consideration, That tho' it is impossible to suppose, that God would work a real Miracle, in contradiction to what he has already Revealed: Yet,

Men

Men may be imposed upon by False and Seeming Miracles, and Pretended Revelations, (as there are many Examples, especially in the Church of Rome) and so may be shaken in the Faith, if they keep not to the Holy Scriptures as their Rule.

We are told, 2 Thess. ii. 9. of him whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all Power, and Signs, and Lying-wonders. And Rev. xiii. 14. xvi. 14. and xix. 20. of the Devil and False-Prophets working Miracles. But the Word, in all these Places, is only Σημεία Signs, that is, as it is rendered, Matth. xxv. 24. which, tho' sometimes it may be used to signify Real Miracles, yet not always, not in these Places. For though every Miracle be a Sign and a Wonder, yet every Sign, or Wonder, is not a Miracle.

X. Here it may be proper to consider a common Topick of the Deists, who when they are not able to stand out against the Evidence of Fact, that such and such Miracles have been done: Then turn about, and deny such Things to be Miracles, at least, That we can never be Sure, whether any wonderful Thing that is shewn to us, be a True or a False Miracle.

And the Great Argument they go upon, is this, That a Miracle being that which exceeds the Power of Nature. We cannot know what exceeds it, unless we knew the utmost Extent of the Power of Nature: And no Man pretends to know that; therefore, that no Man can certainly know whether any Event be miraculous. And, consequently, he may be cheated in his Judgment betwixt True and False-Miracles.

To which, I answer, That Men may be so Cheated. And there are many Examples of it.

But that though we may not always Know when we are Cheated, yet we can Certainly tell; in many Cases, when we are not Cheated.

But though we do not know the utmost Extent of the Power of Nature, perhaps, in an One Thing: Yet it does not follow, that we know not the Nature of any thing, in some measure; and that certainly too. For Example, though I do not know the utmost Extent of the Power of Fire, yet I Certainly know, That it is the Nature of Fire to burn. And that when proper Fewel is administered to it, it is Contrary to the Nature of Fire not to Consume it. Therefore, if I see Three Men taken off the Street, in their common wearing Apparel, and without any Preparation, cast into the midst of a Burning Fiery Furnace; and that the Flame was so Fierce, that it Burnt up those Men that threw them in; and yet, that these who were thrown in, should walk up and down in the Bottom of the Furnace, and I should see a Fourth Person with them of Glorious Appearance, like the Son of God. And that these Men should come up again out of the Furnace, without any Harm, or so much as the Smell

Smell of Fire upon themselves, or their Cloaths, I could not be deceived in thinking there was a Stop put to the Nature of Fire, as to these Men; and that it had its Effect upon the Men whom it Burned, at the same Time.

Again, Tho' I cannot tell how Wonderful and Sudden an Increase of Corn might be produced by the Concurrence of many Causes, as a Warm Climate, the Fertility of the Soil, &c. Yet this I can Certainly know, That there is not that Natural Force in the Breach of two or three Words, spoken to multiply one small Loaf of Bread, so fast, in the Breaking of it, as Truly and Really, not only in Appearance and Shew to the Eye, but to fill the Bellies of several Thousand hungry Persons; and that the Fragments should be much more than the Bread was at first.

So niether in a Word spoken, to raise the Dead, cure Diseases, &c.

Therefore, though we know not the utmost Extent of the Power of Nature; yet we can certainly know what is Contrary to the Nature of several such Things as we do Know.

And therefore, though we may be Cheated and imposed upon in many Seeming-Miracles and Wonders; yet there are some Things, wherein we may be Certain.

But further, the Deists acknowledge a God, of an Almighty Power, who made all Things.

Yet they would put it out of his Power, to make any Revelation of his Will to Mankind. For we cannot be Certain of any Miracle, How should we know when God sent any thing Extraordinary to us?

Nay, How should we know the Ordinary Power of Nature, if we knew not what exceeded it? If we knew not what is Natural, How do we know there is such a thing as Nature; That all is not Supernatural, all Miracles, and so disputable, till we come to downright Scepticism, and doubt the Certainty of our outward Senses, whether we See, Hear, or Feel; or all be not a miraculous Illusion!

Which, because I know the Deists are not inclined to do, therefore I will return to pursue my Argument upon the Conviction of our outward Senses. Desiring only this, That they would allow the Senses of other Men to be as Certain as their own. Which they cannot refuse, since without this, they can have no Certainty of their own.

XI. Therefore, from what has been said, the Cause is summed up shortly in this, That tho' we cannot See what was done before our Time, yet by the Marks which I have laid down concerning the Certainty of Matters of Fact done before our Time, we may be as much assured of the Truth of them, as if we saw them with our Eyes; because whatever Matter of Fact has all the Four Marks before-mentioned, could never have been Invented vented and Received but upon the Conviction of the outward Senses of all those who did receive it, as before is demonstrated. And therefore this Topick which I have chosen, does stand upon the Conviction even of Mens outward Senses. And since you have confined me to one Topick, I have not insisted upon the other, which I have only named.

XII. And now it lies upon the Deists, if they would appear as Men of Reason, to shew some Matter of Fact of former Ages, which they allow to be True, that has greater Evidence of its Truth, than the Matters of Fact of Moses, and of Christ: Otherwise they cannot, with any shew of Reason, reject the one, and yet admit of the other.

But, I have given them greater Latitude than this, for I have shewn such Marks of the Truth of the Matters of Fact of Moses and of Christ, as no other Matters of Fact of those Times, however True, have, but these only: And I put it upon them to shew any Forgery, that has All these Marks.

This is a short Issue. Keep them close to this. This determines the Cause all at once.

Let them produce their Appollonius Tyanæus, whose Life was put into English by the execrable Charles Blount *, and compared with all

* The Hand of that Scornor, which durst write such outrageous Blasphemy against his Maker, the Divine Vengeance has made his own Executioner. Which I would not have mentioned, (because the like Judgment has befallen others) but that the

the Wit and Malice he was Master of, to the Life and Miracles of our Blessed Saviour.

Let them take Aid from all the Legends in the Church of Rome, those Pious Cheats, the forest Disgraces of Christianity; and which have bid the fairest, of any one Contrivance, to overturn the Certainty of the Miracles of Christ, and his Apostles, and whole Truth of the Gospel, by putting them all upon the same Foot; at least, they are so understood by the Generality of their Devotees, tho' Disowned and Laughed at by the Learned, and Men of Sense among them.

Let them Pick and Chuse the most probable of all the Fables of the Heathen Deities, and see if they can find, in any of these, the Four Marks before-mentioned.

Otherwise let them submit to the Irrefragable Certainty of the Christian Religion.

XIII. But if, notwithstanding of all that is said, the Deists will still contend, That all this is but Priest-Craft, the Invention of Priests, for their own Profit, &c. then they will give us an Idea of Priests, far different from Theistical-Club, have set this up as a Principle; and printed a Vindication of this same Blount, for murdering of himself, by way of Justification of Self murder. Which some of them have since, as well as formerly, horridly practised upon themselves. Therefore this is no common Judgment to which they are delivered, but a visible Mark set upon them, to shew how far God has forsaken them; and as a Caution to all Christians, to beware of them, and not to come near the Tents of these wicked Men, lest they perish in their Destruction, both of Soul and Body.

from what they intend: For then we must look upon these Priests, not only as the Cunningest and Wiseſt of Mankind, but we ſhall be tempted to adore them as Deities, who have ſuch Power, as to impoſe, at their Pleaſure, upon the Senſes of Mankind to make them believe, that they had practiſed ſuch Publick Inſtitutions, Enacted them by Laws, Taught them to their Children, &c. when they had never done any of theſe Things, or ever ſo much as heard of them before: And then, upon the Credit of their Believing that they had done ſuch Things as they never did, to make them further Believe, upon the ſame Foundation, whatever they pleaſed to impoſe upon them, as to Former Ages: I ſay, ſuch a Power as this, muſt exceed all that is Human; and, conſequently, make us rank theſe Priests far above the Condition of Mortals.

2. Nay, this were to make them out-do all that has ever been related of the Infernal Powers: For though their Legerdemain has extended to deceive ſome unwary Beholders; and their Power of working ſome ſeeming Miracles has been great, yet it never reached, nor ever was ſuppoſed to reach ſo far, as to deceive the Senſes of all Mankind, in Matters of ſuch Publick and Notorious Nature as thoſe of which we now ſpeak, to make them believe, that they had enacted Laws for ſuch Publick Obſervances, continually Practiſed them, Taught them to their Children, and had been Inſtructed in them themſelves, themselves, from their Childhood, if they had never Enacted, Practised, Taught, or been Taught such Things.

3. And as this exceeds all the Power of Hell and Devils, so is it more than ever God Almighty has done since the Foundation of the World. None of the Miracles that He has shewn, or Belief which He has required to any thing that he has Revealed, has ever contradicted the outward Senses of any one Man in the World, much less of all Mankind together. For Miracles being Appeals to our outward Senses, if they should overthrow the Certainty of our outward Senses, must destroy, with it, all their own Certainty, as to us ; since we have no other way to judge of a Miracle exhibited to our Senses, than upon the Supposition of the Certainty of our Senses, upon which we give credit to a Miracle, that is shewn to our Senses.

4. This, by the way, is a yet unanswered Argument against the Miracle of Transubstantiation, and shews the Weakness of the Defence which the Church of Rome offers for it, (from whom the Socinians have licked it up, and, of late, have Gloried much in it amongst us) That the Doctrines of the Trinity, or Incarnation, contain as great seeming Absurdities as that of Transubstantiation: For I would ask, Which of our Senses it is which the Doctrines of the Trinity or Incarnation do contradict? Is it our Seeing, Hearing, Feeling, Taste, or Smell? whereas, Transubstantiation tion does contradict all of these. Therefore the Comparison is exceedingly short, and out of Purpose. But to Return.

If the Christian Religion be a Cheat, and nothing else but the Invention of Priests; and carried on by their Craft, it makes their Power and Wisdom greater, than that of Men, Angels, or Devils; and more than God Himself ever yet shewed or expressed, to Deceive and Impose upon the Senses of Mankind, in such Publick and Notorious Matters of Fact.

XIV. And this Miracle, which the Deists must run into to avoid these recorded of Moses and Christ, is much greater, and more astonishing than all the Scriptures tell of Them.

So that these Men, who laugh at all Miracles, are now oblig'd to account for the greatest of all, how the Senses of Mankind could be imposed upon in such publick Matters of Fact.

And how then can they make the Priests the most contemptible of all Mankind, since they make Them the sole Authors of this the greatest of Miracles.

XV. And since the Deists (these Men of Sense and Reason) have so vile and mean an Idea of the Priests of all Religions, why do they not recover the World out of the Possession and Government of such Blockheads? Why do they suffer Kings and States to be led by Them; to establish their Deceits by Laws

46 A Short and Easy METHOD

Laws, and inflict Penalties upon the Opposers of them? Let the Deists try their Hands; they have been trying, and are now busy about it. And free Liberty they have. Yet have they not prevailed, nor ever yet did prevail in any Civilized or Generous Nation. And though they have some Inrodes among the Hottentots, and some other the most Brutal Part of Mankind, yet are they still exploded, and Priests have and do prevail against them, among not only the Greatest, but Best Part of the World, and the most Glorious for Arts, Learning, and War.

XVI. For as the Devil does ape God, in His Institutions of Religion; His Feasts, Sacrifices, &c. so likewise in His Priests, without whom, no Religion, whether True or False, can stand. False Religion is but a Corruption of the True. The True was before it; though it be followed close upon the Heels.

The Revelation made to Moses, is elder than any History extant in the Heathen World. The Heathens, in Imitation of him, pretended, likewise to their Revelations: But I have given those Marks which distinguish them from the True: None of them have those Four Marks before-mentioned.

Now the Deists think all Revelations to be equally Pretended, and a Cheat: And the Priests of all Religions to be the same Contrivers and Jugglers; and therefore they proclaim claim War equally against all, and are equally engaged to bear the Brunt of all.

And if the Contest be only betwixt the Deists and the Priests, which of them are the Men of the greatest Parts and Sense, let the Effects determine it; and let the Deists yield the Victory to their Conquerors, who, by their own Confession, carry all the World before them.

XVII. If the Deists say, That this is because all the World are Blockheads, as well as those Priests who govern them; that all are Blockheads, except the Deists, who vote themselves only to be Men of Sense. This, (besides the Modesty of it) will spoil their great and beloved Topick, in behalf of what they call Natural Religion, against the Revealed, viz. appealing to the Common Reason of Mankind: This they set up against Revelation; think this to be sufficient for all the Uses of Men, here or hereafter, (if there be any after State) and therefore that there is no Use of Revelation: This Common Reason they advance as Infallible, at least, as the surest Guide, yet now cry out upon it, when it turns against them; when this Common Reason runs after Revelation, (as it always has done) then Common Reason is a Beast, and we must look for Reason, not from the Common Sentiments of Mankind, but only among the Beaux, the Deists.

48 A Short and Easy METHOD

XVIII. Therefore, if the Deists would avoid the Mortification, (which will be very uneasy to them) to yield and submit to be Subdued and Hewed down before the Priests, whom of all Mankind, they Hate and Despise; if they would avoid this, let them confess, as the Truth is, that Religion is no Invention of Priests, but of Divine Original: That Priests were Instituted by the same Author of Religion; and that their Order is a Perpetual and Living Monument of the Matters of Fact of their Religion, Instituted from the Time that such Matters of Fact were said to be done as the Levites from Moses; the Apostles, and succeeding Clergy, from Christ, to this Day. That no Heathen Priests can say the same: They were not appointed by the Gods whom they served, but by others in After-Ages: They cannot stand the Test, of the Four Rules before-mentioned, which the Christian Priests can do, and they only. Now the Christian Priesthood, as Instituted by Christ Himself, and continued by Succeſſion to this Day, being as Impregnable and Flagrant a Testimony to the Truth of the Matters of Fact of Christ, as the Sacraments, or any other Publick Institutions: Besides that, if the Priesthood were taken away, the Sacraments, and other Publick Institutions, which are administred by their Hands, must fall with them: Therefore the Devil has been most busy busy, and bent his greatest Force, in all Ages against the Priesthood, knowing, that if That goes down, All goes with it.

XIX. With the Deists, in this Cause, are joined the Quakers, and other of our Dissenters, who throw off the Succession of our Priesthood (by which only it can be demonstrated) together with the Sacraments and public Festivals. And if the Devil could have prevailed to have these dropt, the Christian Religion would lose the most Undeniable and Demonstrative Proof for the Truth of the Matter of Fact of our Saviour, upon which the Truth of his Doctrine does depend. Therefore we may see the Artifice and Malice of the Devil, in all these Attempts. And let those wretched Instruments whom he ignorantly, (and some, by a misguided Zeal) has deluded thus to undermine Christianity, now at last look back and see the Snare in which they have been taken: For if they had prevailed, or ever should, Christianity dies with them. At least, it will be rendered precarious, as a thing of which no Certain Proof can be given. Therefore let those of them, who have any Zeal for the Truth, bless God that they have not prevailed: and quickly leave them; and let all others be aware of them.

And let us Consider and Honour the Priesthood, Sacraments, and other Publick Institutions of Christ, not only as Means of Grace,

50 A Short and Easy METHOD

and Helps to Devotion, but as the Great Evidence of the Christian Religion.

Such Evidences as no pretended Revelation ever had, or can have. Such as do plainly distinguish it from all foolish Legends and Impostures whatsoever.

XX. And now, last of all, if one Word of Advice would not be lost, upon Men who think so unmeasurably of themselves, as the Deists, you may represent to them, what a Condition they are in, who spend that Life and Sense, which God has given them, in Ridiculing the Greatest of His Blessings, His Revelations of Christ, and by Christ, to Redeem those from Eternal Misery, who shall Believe in Him, and Obey his Laws. And that God, in His Wonderful Mercy and Wisdom, has so Guarded His Revelation, as that it is past the Power of Men or Devils to Counterfeit: And that there is no Denying of them, unless we will be so absurd, as to deny not only the Reason, but the Certainty of the outward Senses, not only of One, or Two, or Three, but of Mankind in General. That this Case is so very Plain, that Nothing but Want of Thought can hinder any to discover it. That they must yield it to be so Plain, unless they can shew some Forgery, which has all the Four Marks, before set down. But if they cannot do this, they must quit their Cause, and yield a Happy Victory over themselves: Or else sit down under all that Ignominy, with which they have loaded the Priests, of being, not only the most Pernicious, but (what will gall them more) the most Inconsiderate, and Inconsiderable of Mankind.
that

Therefore, let them not think it an Undervaluing of their Worthiness, that their whole Cause is comprised within so narrow a Compass: And no more Time bestowed upon it than it is worth.

But let them, rather, reflect, how far they have been all this Time from Christianity; whose Rudiments they are yet to learn! How far from the Way of Salvation! How far the Race of their Lives is run, before they have set one Step in the Road to Heaven. And therefore, how much Diligence they ought to use, to redeem all that Time they have lost, lest they loose themselves for ever; and be convinced, by a dreadful Experience, when it is too late, That the Gospel is a Truth, and of the last Consequence.

A LETTER from the AUTHOR of the Short Method with the Deists and Jews.

SIR, I have read over your Papers with great Satisfaction, and I heartily bless God with you, and for you, that He has had Mercy upon you, and opened your Eyes, to see the wondrous Things of his Law, to convince you of those irrefragable Proofs He has afforded for the Truth and Authority of the Holy Scriptures, such as no other Writing upon Earth can pretend to, and which are incompatible with any Forgery or Deceit. He has given you likewise that True Spirit of Repentance to bring forth the Fruits thereof, that is, to make what Satisfaction you can, for the Injuries you have done to Religion, by answering what has been published formerly by yourself against it, and being converted, you endeavour to Strengthen your Brethren.

I. Creation.

You have laid the true Foundation of the Being of God, against the Atheist: Of His Creation

Creation of the World, and Providence, against the Asserters of blind Chance. If all be Chance, then their Thoughts are so too, and there is no Reasoning or Argument in the World.

Others, because they know not what to say, suppose the World, and all Things in it, to have been from Eternity, and to have gone on, as now, in a constant Succession, of Men begetting Men, Trees springing from Trees, &c. without any Beginning.

But if it was always as it is now, then every Thing had a Beginning, every Man, Bird, Beast, Tree, &c. And what has a Beginning, cannot be without a Beginning.

Therefore as it is evident, that nothing can make itself, it is equally evident, that a Succession of Things made, must have a Beginning. A Succession of Beginnings cannot be without a Beginning; for that would be literally a Beginning without a Beginning, which is a Contradiction in Terms.

II. Providence.

And to deny Providence in the first Cause, is the denying of a God: Whence had we our Providence: For we find we have a Providence to forecast and contrive how to preserve and govern that which we make or acquire: Therefore there must be a Providence much more eminently in God, to preserve and govern all the Works which He has made. He that made the Eye, does he not see? And

54 A Short and Easy METHOD

He who put Providence into the Heart of Man, has He none Himself.

And the Glory of his Wisdom and Power seems greater to us, in the Acts of His Providence, than even in those of Creation, especially in His Governing the Actions of Free-Agents, without taking from them the Freedom of their Will to do as they list, and turning their very Evil into Good, by the Almightiness of His Wisdom. We see great Part of this every Day before our Eyes, in His turning the Counsels of the Wise into Foolishness, and trapping the Wicked in the Works of their own Hands. This strikes us more sensibly, and is nearer to us than the making of a Tree or a Star; and we feel that over-ruling Power in His Providence, which we contemplate in His Creation.

When the Sins of Men are increased to provoke God to take Vengeance, He permits the Spirit of Fury to incline their Wills to War, and Destruction of each other, and Nation rise up against Nation; and when in his Mercy he thinks the Punishment is sufficient, he calms their Rage, like the Roaring of the Sea, and there is Peace. And they are so Free-Agents in all this, that they think it is all their own doing; and so really it is, tho' under the unseen Direction of a Superiour Power.

But not only in the Publick Transactions of the World, His Providence is observable; there is no Man, who has taken Notice of his his own Life, but must find it as to his very private Affairs, a Thought sometimes darting into his Mind, to rid him out of a Difficulty, or shew him an Advantage, which he could not find in much considering before. At other Times a Man's Mind is so clouded, as if his Eyes were shut, that he cannot, see his Way: Again, several Events which he thought most Funeſt, and his utter Ruin, he finds afterwards to be much for the beſt, and that he had been undone, if that had not happened which he feared. On the other Hand, many Things which he thought for his great Benefits he has found to be for his Hurt. This shews a Providence, which ſees further than we can, and diſpoſes all our Actions, though done in the full Freedom of our own Will, to what Events, either Good or Bad for us, as He pleaſes.

III. Revelation.

But theſe Conſiderations from the Creation and Providence though Admirable and Glorious, are within the Oracles of Reason, and are but Earthly Things in Comparison of thoſe Heavenly Things, which God has revealed to Man at ſundry Times, and in divers Manners, and are recorded in the Holy Scriptures, and which otherwiſe it was impoſſible for Man to have known. For what Man is he that can know the Council of God? Or who can think what the Will of the Lord is? For the Thoughts of mortal Men are miserable, and our Devices are but uncertain; for the corruptible Body presseth down the Soul, and the earthly Tabernacle weigheth down the Mind that museth upon many Things; and hardly do we guess aright at Things that are upon Earth, and with Labour do we find Things that are before us: But the Things that are in Heaven, who hath searched out?

This then must be purely the Subject of Revelation; but when the Deist is come thus far, he is entered into a wide Field; for all Religions, Jewish, Heathen, Christian, and Mahometan, pretend to Revelation for their Original.

To clear this Point, was the Design of the Short Method with the Deists, which gave the first Opportunity to our Conversation.

The Heathens and Mahometan Religions not only want those Marks (there set down) which ascertain the Truth of Fact, but their Morals and Worship are impure, and inconsistent with the Attributes of God; as the Indulgence of Fornication, and Uncleaness among the Heathen, and their Human Sacrifices, (most abhorrent to the God of Holiness and Mercy) and the filthy Obscenity of their very Sacra; besides the great Defect of their Morals, which knew no such Thing as Humility, Forgiveness of Injuries, Loving their Enemies, and returning Good for Evil. Some of their Philosophers spoke against revenging of Injuries, as bringing greater Injury to ourselves, or not worth the While; but not upon the Account of Humanity and Love to our Brethren, and doing them Good, though they did Evil to us; and by the Word Humilitas, they meant only a Lowness and Dejection of Mind, which is a Vice; but they had no Notion of it as a Virtue, in having a low Opinion of one's self, and in Honour preferring others before us: This they thought a Vice, and Abjection of Spirits. You may see Pride and Self-Conceit run through all their Philosophy, besides their Principle of increasing their Empire, by Conquering other Countries who did them no Harm, whom they called Barbarians.

Into this Class comes likewise the Sensual PARADISE proposed by Mahomet, and his Principle of propagating his Religion by the Sword.

The Jewish Religion has all the Certainty of Fact, and its Morals are Good; but because of the Hardness of their Hearts, they came not up to the Primitive Purity, as in Case of Polygamy and Divorce, wherein our Blessed Saviour reduces them to the Original, That from the Beginning it was not so; and in several other Cases mentioned in his Sermon upon the Mount.

Therefore the Perfection of Morals, and of the true Knowledge of God, was reserved for the Christian Religion; which has, in more abundant Manner, than even the Jewish, the infallible Marks of the Truth of the Facts, in the Multitude and Notoriety of the Miracles wrought by our Blessed Saviour, beyond those of Moses. Which fully answers the Objection of the Jews, that Christ wrought his Miracles by Beelzebub: For then, as he said to them, By whom do your Children cast out Devils? Was it by the Spirit of God, or Beelzebub, that Moses and the Prophets wrought their Miracles?

Then from the Purity and Heavenliness of his Doctrine, all levelled to destroy the Kingdom of Satan, those wicked PRINCIPLES, and Idolatrous WORSHIP which he had set up in the World; the other Answer of our Blessed Saviour concludes demonstratively, of a Kingdom divided against itself, That if Satan cast out Satan, to promote that Doctrine which Christ taught, we must alter our Notion of the Devil, and suppose him to be Good, and his Kingdom must then be at an End; which we see not yet done, for Wickedness still Reigns in the World.

IV. Object. As to the Holy Trinity.

Against these Things Reason has Nothing to object, but then Prejudices are raised up against what is Revealed, as being of Things that are above our Reason, and out of its Reach; as chiefly the Doctrine of the Blessed Trinity.

In answer to which we may consider, that if such Things were not above our Reason, there needed no Revelation of them, but only a bare Proposal of them to our Reason, made by any Body, without any Authority, and their own Evidence would carry them through.

In the next Place, we must acknowledge that there are many Things in the Divine Nature far out of the Reach of our Reason. That it must be so: For how can Finite comprehend Infinite? Who can think what Eternity is? A Duration without Beginning, or Succession of Parts or Time! Who can so much as imagine, or frame any Idea of a Being, neither made by itself, nor by any other? Of Omnipresence? Of a boundless Immensity, &c.

Yet all this, Reason obliges us to allow, as the Necessary Consequences of a First Cause.

And where any Thing is Established upon the full Proof of Reason, there ten thousand Objections or Difficulties, though we cannot Answer them, are of no Force at all to overthrow it: Nothing can do that, but to refute those Reasons upon which it is Established; till when, the Truth and Certainty of the thing remains Unshaken, tho' we cannot Explain it, nor solve the Difficulties that arise from it.

And if it is so, upon the Point of Reason, much more upon that of Revelation, where the subject Matter is above our Reason, and could never have been found out by it.

All to be done in that Case, is, to satisfy ourselves of the Truth of the Fact, that such Things were Revealed of God, and are no Imposture. This is done, as to the Holy Scriptures, by the Four Marks before-mentioned.

And as to the Contradiction alledged in Three being One, it is no Contradiction, unless it be said, that Three are One, in the self-same Respect: For in divers Respects, there is no Sort of Difficulty, that One may be Three, or Three Thousand; as One Army may consist of many Thousands, and yet it is but One Army: There is but One Human Nature, and yet there are Multitudes of Persons who partake of that Nature.

Now it is not said, that the three Persons in the Divine Nature are one Person; that would be a Contradiction: But it is said, that the three Persons are one Nature. They are not Three and One, in the same Respect; they are Three as to Persons, and One as to Nature. Here is no Contradiction.

Again, that may be a Contradiction in one Nature, which is not so in another: For Example, it is a Contradiction, that a Man can go two Yards or Miles, as soon as one, because Two is but One and another One: Yet this is no Contradiction to Sight, which can reach a Star, as soon as the Top of a Chimney; and the Sun darts his Rays in one Instant from Heaven to Earth: But more than all these is the Motion of Thought, to which no Distance of Place is any Interruption; which can arrive at Japan as soon as at a Yard's Distance; and can run into the Immensity of Possibilities.

Now there are no Words possible, whereby to give any Notion or Idea of Sight or Light to a Man born Blind: And, consequently, to reconcile the Progress of Sight or Light to him from being an absolute Contradiction; because he can measure it no otherwise than according to the Motions of Legs or Arms, for he knows none other: Therefore we cannot charge that as a Contradiction in one Nature, which is so in another, unless we understand both Natures perfectly well: And therefore we cannot charge that as a Contradiction in the Incomprehensible Nature of being Three and One, though we found it to be so in our Nature; which we do not, because, as before said, they are not Three and One in the same Respect.

Now, let us consider further, that though there is no Comparison betwixt Finite and Infinite, yet, we have nearer Resemblances of the Three and One in God, than there is of Sight to a Man born Blind: For there is Nothing in any of the other four Senses that has any Resemblance at all to that of Seeing, or that can give such a Man any Notion whatever of it.

But we find in our own Nature, which is said to be made after the Image of God, a very

62 A Short and Easy METHOD

very near Resemblance of His Holy Trinity, and of the different Operations of each of the Divine Persons.

For Example, to know a Thing Present, and to Remember what is Past, and to Love or Hate, are different Operations of our Mind, and performed by different Faculties of it. Of these, the Understanding is the Father Faculty, and gives Being to Things, as to Us; for what we know not, is to Us as if it were not: This answers to Creation. From this Faculty proceeds the Second, that of Memory, which is a Preserving of what the Understanding has Created to Us. Then the Third Faculty, that of the Will, which Loves or Hates, proceeds from Both the Other, for we cannot love or hate what is not first created by the Understanding, and preserved to us by the Memory.

And though these are different Faculties, and their Operations Different, that the Second proceeds from the First, or is Begotten by it; and the Third proceeds from the First and Second in Conjunction, so that one is before the other, in Order of Nature, yet not in Time; for they are all Con-genial, and one is as soon in the Soul as the other; and yet they make not Three Souls, but One Soul. And though their Operations are Different, and the one Proceeds from the Other, yet no One can Act without the Other, and they all Concur to every Act of Each; for in Understanding and Remembering, there is a Concurrent Act of the Will to Consent to such Un- derstanding, or Remembering; so that no One can Act without the Other; in which Sense, none is Before or After the other, nor can any of them Be, or Exist, without the other.

But what we call Faculties in the Soul, we call Persons in the Godhead; because there are Personal Actions attributed to Each of them: As that of Sending, and being Sent, to take Flesh, and be Born, &c.

And we have no other Word, whereby to Express it; we speak it after the Manner of Men; nor could we Understand, if we heard any of those Un-speakable Words, which Express the Divine Nature in its proper Essence; therefore we must make Allowances, and Great ones, when we apply Words of our Nature, to the Infinite and Eternal Being. We must not argue Strictly and Philosophically from them, more than from God's being said to Repent, to be Angry, &c. They are Words ad Captum, in Condescension to our weak Capacities, and without which, we could not understand.

But this, I say, That there are nearer Resemblance afforded to us of this Ineffable Mystery of the Holy Trinity, than there is betwixt one of our outward Senses and another; than there is to a blind Man, of Colours, or of the Motions of Light, or Sight: And a Contradiction in the one will not infer a Contradiction in the other; tho' it is impossible to be solved, as in the Instance before given of a Man born blind, till we come to Know both Natures Distinctly.

And

64 A Short and Easy METHOD

And if we had not the Experience of the Different Faculties of our Mind, the Contradiction would appear Irreconcilable to all our Philosophy, how Three could be One, each Distinct from the other, yet but one Soul: One Proceeding from, or being Begot by the Other; and yet all Co-eval, and none Before or After the other: And as to the difference betwixt Faculties and Persons, Substance and Subsistence, it is a puzzling Piece of Philosophy. And tho' we give not a Distinct Subsistence to a Faculty, it has an Existence, and one Faculty can no more be Another, than one Person can be Another: So that the Case seems to be alike in Both, as to what concerns our present Difficulty of Three and One; besides what before is said, That by the Word Person, when applied to God (for want of a Proper Word, whereby to exprefs it) we must mean something infinitely different from Personality among Men. And therefore from a Contradiction in the one (suppose it granted) we cannot charge a Contradiction in the other, unless we understand it as well as the other; for how else can we draw the Parallel?

What a Vain Thing is our Philosophy, when we would Measure the Incomprehensible Nature by it! When we find it Non-plussed in our own Nature, and that in many Instances. If I am All in one Room, is it not a Contradiction that any Part of Me should be in another Room? Yet it was a common Saying

Saying among Philosophers, that the Soul is All in All, and All in every Part of the Body: How is the same Individual Soul Present, at one and the same Time, to Actuate the distant Members of the Body, without either Multipli- cation or Division of the Soul? Is there any Thing in Body can bear any Resemblance to this, without a manifest Contradiction? Nay, even as to Bodies, is any Thing more a Self-Evident Principle, than that the Cause must be before the Effect? Yet the Light and Heat of the Sun are as old as the Sun; and supposing the Sun to be Eternal, they would be as Eternal.

And as Light and Heat are of the Nature of the Sun, and as the Three Faculties before-mentioned, are of the Nature of the Soul, so that the Soul could not be a Soul if it wanted any of them; so may we, from small Things to Great, apprehend, without any Contradiction, that the Three Persons are of the very Nature and Essence of the Deity; and so of the same Substance with it; and though one Proceeding from the other, (as the Faculties of the Soul do) yet that all Three are Con-substantial, Co-eternal, and of necessary Existence as God is; for that these Three are God, and God is these Three. As Understanding, Memory, and Will, are a Soul, and a Soul is Understanding, Memory, and Will.

I intend (God willing) to Treat of this Subject more largely by itself; but I have said thus much here, to clear the Way from that Objection of rejecting Revelation, (though we

66 A Short and Easy METHOD

we are Infallibly sure of the Fact) because of the supposed Contradiction to our Reason, in comparing it with our Earthly Things.

V. Of the Differences among Christians.

But now, that from all the Proofs of the Certainty of the Revelation we are come to fix in Christianity, our Labour is not yet at an End: For here you see Multiplicity of Sects and Divisions, which our Blessed Saviour foretold should come, for the Probation of the Elect; as some Canaanites were left in the Land to teach the Israelites the Use of War, lest by too profound a Peace, they might grow Lazy and Stupid, and become an easy Prey to their Enemies. So might Christianity be lost among us; if we had nothing to do, it would Dwindle and Decay, and Corrupt by Degrees, as Water stagnates by standing still: But when we are put to Contend Earnestly, for the Faith, it Quickens our Zeal, keeps Us upon our Guard, Trims our Lamp, and Furbishes the Sword of the Spirit, which might otherwise Rust in its Scabbard. And it gives great Opportunity to shew Us the Wonderful Providence and Protection of GOD over his Church, in Preserving Her against a visibly unequal Force.

Phil. i. 29. And in this Contest, to some this High Privilege is Granted in the Behalf of Christ, not only to believe on Him, but also to Suffer for His Sake. These go to make make up the Noble Army of Martyrs, and Confessors, for ever Triumphant in Heaven. Others Conquer even here on Earth, that God's Wonderful Doings may be known to the Children of Men.

But as he who Builds a Tower, ought first to compute the Expence, and he who goes to War, to consider his Strength; so our Blessed Saviour has Instructed Us, That he who will be his Disciple, must resolve beforehand to take up his Cross daily, to forsake Father and Mother, and Wife and Children, and Lands, and Life itself, when he cannot keep them with the Truth and Sincerity of the Gospel. Therefore we must put on the whole Armour of God, that we may be able to stand in the evil Day, and having overcome all, to stand; for we wrestle not against Flesh and Blood, but against Principalities, against Powers, against the Rulers of the Darkness of this World, against wicked Spirits in high Places.

And what is it we Wrestle for? For the Great Mystery of Godliness, God manifest in the Flesh, &c.

VI. The Doctrine of Satisfaction.

Here is the Foundation of the Christian Religion, That when Man had Sinned, and was utterly unable to make any Satisfaction for his Sin, God sent his own Son to take upon Him our Flesh, and in the same Nature that

Offended,

68 A Short and Easy METHOD

Offended, to make full Satisfaction for the Sins of the whole World, by His Perfect Obedience, and the Sacrifice of Himself upon the Cross.

Some say, What need any Satisfaction? Might not God forgive without it? It would shew greater Mercy. But these Men consider not, that God is not only Just, but He is Justice itself; Justice in the Abstract; He is Essential Justice. And Justice, by its Nature, must exact to the utmost Farthing, else it were not Justice: To Remit is Mercy, it is not Justice: And the Attributes of God must not Fight and Oppose each other; they must all stand Infinite and Compleat. You may say then, how can God Forgive at all? How can Infinite Mercy and Justice stand together?

This Question could never have been Answered, if God Himself had not shewed it to Us in the wonderful Oeconomy of our Redemption: For here is His Justice satisfied to the least Iota, by the perfect Obedience and Passion of Christ, (who is God) in the same Human Nature that Offended. Here is Infinite Wisdom expressed in this Means found out for our Salvation; and Infinite Mercy in Affording it to us. Thus all His Attributes are Satisfied, and Filled up to the Brim: They Contradict not, but Exalt each other. His Mercy Exalts and Magnifies His Justice: His Justice Exalts his Mercy, and both His infinite Wisdom.

Here is a View of God, beyond what all the Oracles of Reason could ever have found out, from his Works of Creation, or Common mon Providence! These shew His Works, but this His Nature, it is Himself! The very Face of God! Before which the Angels veil their Faces, and Desire to Look into this Abyss of Goodness, and Power, and Wisdom, which they will never be able to Fathom, but still Feed upon, and Search farther and farther into it, with Adoration, to Eternity! And they Worship our Manhood thus taken into God! And Rejoice to be Ministring Spirits to Us, while upon Earth.

This you and I have talked over at Large; and this I gave you as the Sum and Substance, the Alpha and Omega of the Christian Religion. And now I repeat it as the surest Criterion to guide a Man, in the Difficulty before Us, that is, in the Choice of a Church, in the midst of all that Variety there is among Christians. Whoever hold not this Doctrine, join not with them, nor bid them God Speed.

VII. The Socinians.

This will save you from the Socinians, or the Unitarians, as they now call themselves in England, who expressly deny this Doctrine: For they Deny the Doctrine of the Holy Trinity, and the Divinity of Christ, upon which it is founded. They consider Christ no otherwise than a meer Man; and propose Him only as a Teacher and Good Example to Us. But then they are confounded with all their Pretence to Wit and Reason, to give any Account for His Death, which was not necessary to Teaching, or being an Example: That, an Angel, or a Prophet might have been. Then they say, That he Died to Confirm the Truth of His Doctrine: But set this Doctrine of Satisfaction aside, and He taught nothing New, except the Improvement of some Morals: Besides, Dying does not Confirm the Truth of any Doctrine; it only shews, That He who Dies for it, does himself Believe it. Some have Died for Errors; and the Socinian Doctrine Affords no Comfort, no Assurance to Us. For if we consider Christ only as a Teacher, or Example, we have not followed His Precepts, nor Example: Here is Nothing but Matter of Condemnation to Us. But if we look upon Him as our Surety, who has paid our Debt, as our Sacrifice, Atonement, and Propitiation for our Sins, and that we are Saved by His Blood, (which is the Language of the Holy Scriptures, of which the Socinians know no Meaning) this is a Rock, and Infalible Assurance.

VIII. The Church of Rome.

As the Socinians have totally Rejected this Doctrine, so the Church of Rome has greatly Vitiated and Depressed it, by their Doctrine of Merit, and their own Satisfaction, which they make Part of their Sacrament of Penance. On this is Founded their Purgatory, wherein Souls who had not made full Satisfaction tion upon Earth, must Compleat it there. They deny not the Satisfaction of Christ, but join their own with it, as if it were not Sufficient.

IX. The Dissenters.

On the other Hand, our Dissenters run to the contrary Extream: And because our good Works must have no Share in the Satisfaction for Sin, which they cannot, as being Unworthy and mixed with our Infirmities, and our Sin; therefore they make them not Necessary, nor of any Effect towards our Salvation. They say th t Christ did not Die for any but the Elect, in whom he sees no Sin, let them Live never so Wickedly. They Damn the far greatest Part of the World, by irreverfible Decrees of Reprobation, and say, That their Good Works are hateful to God, and that it is not Poffibly in their Power to be Saved, let them Believe as they will, and Live never so Religiously. They take away Free-Will in Man, and make him a perfect Machine. They make God the Author of Sin, to Create Men on purpose to Damn them; and to Punish them Eternally for not Doing what was not in their Power to Do, and for doing what He had made Impossible for them not to Do. They make his Promises and Threatnings to be of no Effect, nay, to be a Sort of Burlefquing, and Insulting thofe whom He has made Miferable; which is an Hideous Blafphemy!

72 A Short and Easy METHOD

For a Solution in this Matter, both as to Faith and Works, I refer you to the Homilies of Faith, and Salvation, and of Good Works, where you will find the True Christian Doctrine set forth clearly and solidly.

I will not anticipate what you Design for your Second Part, by entering into other Disputes there are among Christians; only this will be exceeding Necessary, to settle well the Notion of the Church of Christ, to which all do pretend in various Manners.

X. The true Notion of the Church.

First, therefore, the Church must be considered not only as a Sect, that is, a Company of People Believing such and such Tenets, like the several Sects of the Heathen Philosophers; but as a Society under Government, with Governors appointed by Christ, invested with such Powers and Authority, to Admit into, and Exclude out of, the Society, and Govern the Affairs of the Body.

This Power was Delegated by Christ to His Apostles, and their Successors, to the End of the World: Accordingly the Apostles did Ordain Bishops in all the Churches which they Planted throughout the whole World, as the Supreme Governors, and Center of Unity, each in his own Church. These were obliged to keep Unity and Communion with one another; which is therefore called Catholick Communion. And all these Churches considered together, together, is the Catholick Church : As the several Nations of the Earth are called the World.

XI. Of an Universal Bishop.

And Christ Appointed no Universal Bishop over His Church, more than an Universal Monarch over the World. No such Thing was known in the Primitive Church, till it was set up first by John Bishop of Constantinople, then by the Bishop of Rome, in the VIIth Century. And as the whole World is One Kingdom to God, as it is written, His Kingdom Ruleth over All ; so the several Churches of the World are One Church to Christ. And the Church of Rome saying that She is that One Church, or shew Us another, which can Dispute it with Us, in Universality, Antiquity, &c. is the same as if France (for Example) should say, Who can compare with Me ? Therefore I am the Universal, or Monarch, shew me another. The Thing appears Ridiculous at the first Proposal ; for it must be said to Rome, or to France, that if you were ten times greater than you are, you are yet but a Part of the Whole. And to say, who else pretends to it ? Why none. And it would be Nonsense in any who did pretend to it : One Part may be Bigger than another ; but one Part can never be the Whole. And all Results in this, whether Christ did appoint an Universal Bishop over all the Churches in the World ?

74 A Short and Easy METHOD

And we are willing to leave the Issue to that, if it can appear either from Scripture or Antiquity. Besides, the Reason of the Thing; for as Gregory the Great urged against John of Constantinople, if there was an Universal Bishop, the Universal Church must fall, if that one Universal Bishop fell; and so all must come to center in One Poor, Fallible, Mortal Man.

This obliged the Pope to run into another monstrous Extream, and set up for Infallibility in his own Person, as the only Successor of St. Peter, and Heir of those Promises made to Him, super hanc Petram, &c. This was the Current Doctrine of the Divines in the Church of Rome, in former Ages, as you may see in BELLARMINE, de Rom. Pontif. l. iv. c. 5. Where he carries this so high, as to Assert, That if the Pope did Command the Practice of Vice, and Forbid Virtue, the Church were Bound to Believe that Virtue was Vice, and that Vice was Virtue. And in his Preface, he calls this Absolute Supremacy of the Pope, the Summa rei Christianæ, the Sum and Foundation of the Christian Religion. And that to Deny it, was not only a Simple Error, but a Pernicious Heresy.

This was Old Popery: But now it is generally Decried by the Papists themselves; yet no Pope has been brought to Rencounce it, they will not Quit Claim.

When they departed from the Infallibility of the Pope, they sought to place it in their General Councils: But these are not always in Being; and so their Infallibility must Drop for

for several Ages together ; which will not consist with their Argument, That God is obliged by His Goodness, to Afford always an outward and living Judge and Guide to His Church. Besides, that Instances are found, where those Councils they call General, have contradicted one another.

For which Reasons, others of them place the Infallibility in the Church Diffusive : But this upon their Scheme is Indefinite, and the Judge of Controversy must be sought among numberless Individuals, of whom no One is the Judge or Guide.

XII. Of Infallibility in the Church.

But there is an Infallibility in the Church, not Personal in any One or All of Christians put together ; for Millions of Fallibles can never make an Infallible. But the Infallibility consists in the Nature of the Evidence, which having all the four Marks mentioned in The Short Method with the Deists, cannot possibly be False. As you and I believe there is such a Town as Constantinople, that there was such a Man as Henry VIII ; as much as if we had seen them with our Eyes: Not from the Credit of any Historian or Traveler, all of whom are Fallible ; but from the Nature of the Evidence, wherein it is Impossible for Men to have Conspired and carried it on without Contradiction, if it were False.

Thus, whatever Doctrine has been Taught in the Church, (according to the Rule of Vincentius centius Lirinensis) Semper, ubique, & ab omnibus, is the Christian Doctrine; for in this Case, such Doctrine is a Fact, and having the foresaid Marks, must be a true Fact, viz. That such Doctrine was so Taught and Received.

76 A Short and Easy METHOD

This was the Method taken in the Council called at Alexandria against Arius, it was asked Socrat. Hist. l. i. c. v. Gr. by Alexander the Archbishop who Presided, Quis unquam talia audivit? Who ever heard of this Doctrine before? And it being Answered by all the Bishops there Assembled, in the Negative, it was concluded a Novel Doctrine, and contrary to what had been Universally Received in the Christian Church. Thus every Doctrine may be reduced to Fact; for it is purely Fact, whether such Doctrine was Received or not?

And a Council Assembled upon such an Occasion, stands as Evidence of the Fact, not as Judges of the Faith; which they cannot alter by their Votes or Authority.

A Council has Authority in Matters of Discipline in the Church; but in Matters of Faith, what is called their Authority, is their Attestation to the Truth of Fact; which if it has the Marks before-mentioned, must be Infallibly True: Not from the Infallibility of Any or All of the Persons, but from the Nature of the Evidence, as before is said.

And this is the surest Rule, whereby to Judge of Doctrines, and to know what the Catholick Church had Believed and Taught, as Received from the Apostles.

And

And they who refuse to be Tried by this Rule, who say, we care not what was Believed by the Catholick Church, either in former Ages, or now; we think our own Interpretations or Criticisms upon such a Text, of as great Authority as theirs; these are justly to be Suspected, nay, it is Evident, that they are Broaching some Novel Doctrines, which cannot stand this Test. Besides the monstrous Arrogance in such a Pretence, these overthrow the Foundation of that sure and Infallible Evidence upon which Christianity itself does stand; and reduce All to a Blind Enthusiasm.

XIII. Of Episcopacy.

But further, Sir, in your Search after a Church, you must not only consider the Doctrine but the Government; that is, as I said before, you must consider the Church, not only as a Seet, but as a Society: For though every Society founded upon the Belief of such Tenets, may be called a Seet, yet every Seet is not a Society. Now a Society cannot be without Government, for it is that which makes a Society: And a Government cannot be without Governors. The Apostles were Instituted by Christ, the first Governor of his Church; and with them and their Successors He has Promised to be, to the End of the World. The Apostles did Ordain Bishops, as Governors, in all the Churches which they planted throughout the whole World:
and

78 A Short and Easy METHOD

and these Bishops were esteemed the Successors of the Apostles, each in his own Church, from the Beginning to this Day. This was the Current Notion and Language of Antiquity. Omnes Apostolorum Successores sunt. That all Bishops were the Successors of the Apostles. As St. Jerom speaks, Epist. ad Evagr. And St. Ignatius, who was Constituted by the Apostles Bishop of Antioch, salutes the Church of the Trallians, Ἐν τῷ πληρώματι ἐν Ἀποστολικῷ χαρατῆρι. In the Plenitude of the Apostolical Character, Thus it continued from the Days of the Apostles, to those of John Calvin. In all the which Time there was not any one Church in the whole Christian World, that was not Episcopal. But now it is said by our Dissenters, That there is no need of Succession from the Apostles, or those Bishops Instituted by them: That they can make Governors over themselves whom they list: And what signifies the Government of the Church, so the Doctrine be Pure? But this totally Dissolves the Church as a Society; the Government of which consists in the Right and Title of the Governor. And as the Apostle says, No Man taketh this Honour to himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron. And the Dispute betwixt him and Korah was not as to any Point either of Doctrine or Worship, but meerly upon that of Church Government. And St. Jude, ver. 11. brings down the same Case to that of the Christian Church. And Reason carries it as to all all Societies. They who will not Obey the Lawful Governor, but set up another in Opposition to him, are no longer of the Society, but Enemies to it, and Justly Forfeit all the Rights and Privileges of it.

Now Considering that all the Promises in the Gospel, are Made to the Church, what a Dreadful Thing must it be, to be Excluded from all these!

Besides, the Church is called the Pillar and Ground of the Truth, as being a Society Instituted by Christ, for the Support and Preservation of the Faith. This no Particular Church can Attribute to itself, otherwise than as being a Part of the Whole: And therefore, as St Cyprian says, Christ made the College of Bishops numerous, that if one proved Heretical, or sought to Devour the Flock, the Rest might Interpose for the Saving of it. This is equally against letting the whole Depend upon one Universal Bishop; and against throwing off the whole Episcopate, that is, all the Bishops in the World; which would be a total Dissolution of the Church as a Society, by leaving no Governors in it; or which is the same, Setting up Governors of our own Head, without any Authority or Succession from the Apostles; which is rendering the whole Precarious, and without any Foundation. And it is a Supposing that Providence is more Obligated to Stand by a Church set up in Direct Opposition to His Institution, than by that Church which Christ Himself has founded, and Promised to be with it to the End of the World. And tho' tho' He has permitted Errors and Heresies to overspread several Parts of it, at several Times, for the Probation of the Elect, like the Wain- ing of the Moon, yet has He not left Himself without Witness, and has Restored Light to Her, pursuant to his Promise, that the Gates of Hell should not prevail against Her: And this by the Means of his Servants and Substitutes, the Bishops of his Church, whom He has not deserted. All of whom, through the whole World always did, and still do Maintain and own the Apostolick Creed. And wherein some, as the Arians, have perverted the Sense of some Articles, that lasted but a short Time; and the Truth has been more confirmed by it, in the unanimous Consent and Testimony of the whole Episcopal College, to the Primitive Doctrine which they had Received from the Beginning. God Healed these Heresies in His own Way, by the Bishops and Governors of His Church, whom he had Appointed, and without any Infraction upon His own Institution.

80 A Short and Easy METHOD

And it is observable, That these Heresies began by Infraction, which Men made upon His Institution of Bishops, as Arius, an Ambitious Presbyter, first rose up against his Bishop, before he was given up to that vile Heresy, which he vented afterwards by Degrees, to Gain a Party after him, thereby to Maintain the Opposition which he had made against his Bishop: And, by a Just Judgment, he Fell from one Error to another, till he at last Completed that Detestable Heresy which bears his Name.

And in all the Annals of the Church, whether under the Law or the Gospel, there is not one Instance of a Schism against the Priesthood, which God had Appointed; but great Errors in Doctrine and Worship did follow it. Thus the Priesthood, which Micah set up of his own Head, and that which Jeroboam set up in Opposition to that of Aaron, both ended in Idolatry. Thus the Novations and Donatists, who made Schisms against their Bishops, fell into grievous Errors, tho' they did not renounce the Faith.

And into what gross Errors, both as to Doctrine and Worship, has the Church of Rome fallen, since her Bishop set up for Universality, and thereby Commenced that Grand Schism against all the Bishops of the Earth, whom he sought to Depress under him; but while he would Trust other Churches from him, he Thrust himself from the Catholick Church.

What Hydra Heresies, and Monstrous Sects (fifty or sixty at one Time, of which we have the Names) flowed like a Torrent into England, in the Time of Forty-One, after Episcopacy was thrown down!

So evident is that Saying, That the Church is the Pillar and Ground of the Truth, that we can hardly find any Error which has come into the Church, but upon an Infraction made upon the Episcopal Authority.

XIV. An Infallible Demonstration of Episcopacy.

For which this is to be said. That it has all the Four Marks before-mentioned, to ascertain any Fact, in the concurrent Testimony of all Churches, at all Times; And therefore must infallibly be the Government which the Apostles left upon the Earth. To which we must adhere, till a greater Authority than Theirs shall alter it. I doubt not but all this will determine you to the Church of England. And keep you firm to Episcopacy, as a Matter not indifferent.

And I Pray God, that He who hath begun a Good Work in you, may perfect it until the Day of JESUS CHRIST, Amen.
